Dear Sir,

I enclose you the accounts requested, agreeably to your form as near as possible. Judge Pope is judge of the district court and if any evidence at the facts is acquired you can procure it at the State Department Washington City. A small item of $22/50 for ___ horses I presume you, have a voucher for from the circumstance of its not being in the account. If you have not write me and I can procure it. The man lived about forty miles from here.

I apprehend the greatest difficulty with the insufficiency the accounts. But I gave no doubt if the offices do not feel authorised to handle to appropriation so as to balance our ___ that congress would not hesitate to pass an act for that ___

Wishing you great success in your trip to Washington I ___ with due respect

Some Obt. Srvt.

Thomas Mather

P.S. The man of whom I purchased the horses lives at Memphis ___
