
COMMUNIQUE

VOL. SIX, NO. 22

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

JAN. 19, 1988

ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES ANNOUNCED

ACTING DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Phyllis A. Morris has been appointed Acting Director of Public Relations for Lindenwood College, succeeding Randy Wallick, effective February 1, 1988. Ms. Morris came to Lindenwood in September of 1984 as Secretary to the Director of Development. She presently holds the title of Assistant Director of Development.

A graduate of McKendree College with an A.B. degree, Ms. Morris has finished all course work for an M.A. degree in Mass Media from Lindenwood. She is married and she and her husband have a two and half year old daughter, Jane. President Spainhower has announced that henceforth the Office of Public Relations will be attached to the Office of Development and the Public Relations Office and moved from the ground floor of Roemer to the Memorial Arts Building on February 1, 1988.

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Mr. Kenton Kolker, a 1987 graduate of Lindenwood, has been named Director of Community Relations in the Office of Development succeeding Lynn Landholt who resigned in December, 1987. Mr. Kolker began his duties January 4, 1988.

Mr. Kolker's responsibilities include staff direction of the Lindenwood - St. Charles Community Fund Drive, administrative liason with the Board of Overseers, and representative of the College to numerous civic and business organizations.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Mrs. Marilyn Keck has been named Administrative Secretary to James D. Thompson, Executive Director of Development, effective January 18, 1988.

Mrs. Keck is a native of Stevens Point, Wisconsin. She attended Carthage College in Kenosha, Wisconsin, majoring in history. At Carthage she held a number of administrative positions, including service in the Office of Development.

NEW DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER CENTER APPOINTED

Larry L. Leiner of Wood River, Illinois has joined the College as the Director of the Computer Center, effective Monday, January 11, 1988. Larry was previously employed by Envirodyne Engineers in St. Louis as Data Manager. He has also served as an instructor for Lewis & Clark Community College. Larry replaces Joseph Ackerman who is now employed by Contel, Inc. Larry received his B.S. from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

FULL-TIME POSITION AVAILABLE

Records Clerk/Receptionist: Position available in the Evening College, Admissions Office. Contact Marsha Parker ext 362 by Friday, January 22nd if you are interested.

1988-89 ACT FAMILY FINANCIAL STATEMENT PACKETS AND SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

1988-89 ACT Family Financial Statement packets and scholarship applications are now in the Financial Aid Office. Please pick yours up, complete, and mail as soon as possible.

PERFORMING ARTS DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES AUDITIONS

The Department of Performing Arts announces open auditions for Hedda Gabler, the first Mainstage production of the spring semester. The play, which will be performed in Jelkyl Theatre on February 25, 26, 27 and March 3, 4, 5, is a modern classic centering on a recently married woman who takes perverse delight in dominating and manipulating the men in her life. There are roles for 3 men and 4 women. Auditions are scheduled for Thursday, January 21 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 213 of the Fine Arts Building. The audition will consist of cold readings from the script. For further information, call the Performing Arts office at extension 218.

MICHAEL MORGAN AND PAUL ERNY EXHIBIT

Michael Morgan and Paul Erny will exhibit photographs at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the Fine Arts Building at Lindenwood College, from January 20, through February 18, 1988. An opening reception, free to the public and with an opportunity to meet the artists will be held on Sunday, January 24 from 2:00 to 4:00 P.M. Both men are working professional photographers in the St. Louis area.

REDUCED TUITION RATES FOR CERTIFIED ELEMENTARY & SECONDARY TEACHERS

For the 5th consecutive year, Lindenwood College is offering reduced tuition rates for certified elementary and secondary teachers who enroll in graduate courses in education. This special rate is applicable to graduate courses taken to extend certification or to update skills.

Registration is now in progress for Spring Semester which begins January 20. To obtain a complete listing of courses or more information, call the Education Department, Lindenwood College, 949-2000 ext 356.

BOOKSTORE SALE

25% off Jackets and Sweaters -- Save through January 29th

GOLD RING SALE

Ring Day - February 1, 11:00 to 7:00 p.m. -- $60 off 18k - $40 off 14K - $20 off 10K

NEWS OF THE LINDENWOOD FAMILY

Martha May Boyer, the founder of the Lindenwood College communications program and KCLC radio, died in Tucson, Arizona hospital January 12, 1988. Miss Boyer came to Lindenwood in 1946 to teach broadcasting classes. Miss Boyer was granted Professor Emerita status when she retired from full-time teaching in 1972. Miss Boyer moved to the Tucson area five years ago. She was awarded an Doctorate of Humane Letters by the Lindenwood faculty in 1986.

Miss Mary Ambler, Archivist, is in the hospital for surgery. She shall return home this week.

1987 Holiday Door Decorations Winners were selected by student judges Mark Hopper, Robin McCune, and Tim Turner. The winners are: 1st place - Security, 2nd place - Financial Aid, 3rd place - Admissions. Congratulations to the winners and thanks to everyone who participated in this Faculty/Staff Lindenwood One Thousand sponsored event.

Vern and Carolyn Shelp wish to extend their thanks and appreciation, with deepest gratitude, to their friends at Lindenwood College for the many acts of kindness and assistance extended to them. "Your caring has been a source of strength for all of us. May God bless you."

Beth Neyman is one of twelve women's soccer players selected to the First Team of the NAIA All-American Women's Soccer for their performances during the 1987 season.

REV. LARRY RICE TO SPEAK

Rev. Larry Rice, Director of the New Life Evangelistic Center, will speak in the Memorial Arts Building Parlor at Lindenwood College on Thursday, January 28 at 3:30 P.M. Rev. Rice is one of the leading advocates of the poor and homeless in St. Louis. Under his leadership, the New Life Evangelistic Center provides food, shelter, clothing, counseling, and medical care for the needy in St. Louis, East St. Louis, Jefferson City, Columbia, and New Bloomfield, and Toledo, Ohio. Among other things, the NLEC is well-known for its distribution of electric fans to the inner-city poor during the hot, humid summers in St. Louis. Rev. Rice also conducts a television ministry on Channel 24 in St. Louis. His appearance on campus is in commemoration of Martin Luther King's birthday. This event is sponsored by the Lindenwood Student Government and the Lectures and Concerts Committee.

Tune to 89.1 FM for the best listening-
*Lindenwood College's KCLC Radio!