
COMMUNIQUE

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE

SENIORS

There will be a Senior Class meeting on Sunday, February 7th at 8:00 p.m. in the Student Center. Your attendance is greatly needed. There will be a lot of important topics discussed.

BECKY TAYLOR APPOINTED SECRETARY TO DEAN

Becky Taylor is the new Secretary to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of Faculty. Becky is a native of Jefferson City, Missouri and recently relocated to St. Charles from Columbia, Missouri. While working in Columbia, she served in a variety of secretarial positions at the University of Missouri. Becky has attended both Southwest Missouri State University and Northeast Missouri State University. She is married and the mother of two children.

SPECIAL WORKSHOP FOR ADULTS INTERESTED IN COLLEGE

Lindenwood College will present a special workshop for adults interested in beginning or returning to college. Entitled "Changes, Challenges, and Choices," the workshop will explore reasons for lifestyle changes, the decision-making process, facts about adult education and resources/support services. Representatives from the Career Services and Admissions Offices will conduct the program on Wednesday, February 10, 7:00-9:00 p.m., in the parlor of the Memorial Arts Building. To register for this free workshop, call the college's CAP Center, 949-2000 Ext. 237.

LINDENWOOD NOON-DAY LUNCHEON SERIES

Jan Kniffen, Vice President/Treasurer of the May Department Stores will be the guest speaker at the Lindenwood College St. Louis Metropolitan Noon-Day Luncheon scheduled for Thursday, February 25th at 12:00 noon at the Missouri Athletic Club, Fourth and Washington. Cost for the luncheon is $15 or $12 for Lindenwood One Thousand members and students. "Mergers and Acquisitions: The Same Old Game in a Brand New Environment" is the title of Mr. Kniffen's presentation.

The Metropolitan Noon-Day luncheon Series is sponsored by a group of Lindenwood alumni in the fall, winter and spring at convenient and attractive metropolitan locations to foster networking among the college's alumni. For information on the luncheon, call the Lindenwood Alumni Office at 949-2000 or Series Coordinator, Mike Wood at 878-9222.

ARE YOU STAR MATERIAL?

If you like working in theater and/or video, have we got an opportunity for you! Student actors and extras are needed for a Financial Aid Video which will be seen in many colleges and universities. Experience is helpful, but not required, as the students will be portraying students. Call Kathy in Financial Aid, Ext. 380.

TENNIS

All those seriously interested in playing tennis should attend our first practice of the semester at West James on Wednesday, February 3, at 10:15 p.m. - midnight. We will have an hour and a half of court time with a short meeting beginning at 10:15. Please be on time. If you cannot attend and are interested, contact Kathy Quinn Ext. 399

WORLD PREMIER

A world premier production will be opening at Lindenwood's Downstage Theatre next weekend. The play, Dark Star, concerns the life and loves of St. Louis poet, Sara Teasdale. Its original script is written by local playwright George Hickenlooper.

The role of Sara is played by Wendy Brotherlin, a sophomore in Mass Communications. Dark Star runs February 11-13 at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $2.00 at the door, $1.00 for students. For more information call Ext. 218.

HANS LEVI GUEST ARTIST

Hans Levi, will be a guest artist at St. Louis Community College at Meramec. The opening reception will be Monday, February 1, 7 p.m. - 9 p.m. and continue through February 26, 1988. The exhibit is entitled "M and W Together"

PURCHASE 1986-87 YEARBOOK

Anyone who would like to purchase a yearbook from the 1986-87 school year can pick one up from Marilyn Morris. The cost is $20 per book - cash, check, or money order only. Also anyone who already purchased their yearbook may pick up their book if they have the receipt.

NEH SUMMER INSTITUTES FOR COLLEGE FACULTY

The National Endowment for the Humanities has scheduled sixteen Summer Institutes for College faculty in the Humanities. Information concerning these institutes is available for review in the Office of the Dean of Faculty, Roemer 102.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS SOCIETY OF MISSOURI

Independent Accounts Society of Missouri will award two scholarships of $500 and one scholarship of $100 for the academic year 1988-89 to students majoring in accounting with a "B" or better average in the remainder of their courses. Applicants must be enrolled full time in a degree program. Students may apply for a scholarship at the end of their second completed year of study, provided they have committed themselves to a major in accounting throughout the remainder of their college career. Applications may be obtained from Financial Aid and must be accompanied by official transcripts from all schools attended. Deadline: February 20, 1988. Recipients will be announced in May of 1988.

THE SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION OF ST. LOUIS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The Scholarship Foundation of St. Louis is now accepting applications from students of all ages for renewable interest-free loans for the 1988-89 school year. You must be a permanent resident of St. Louis, St. Louis County, or the school district of Fox C-6, Francis Howell, Orchard Farm, or St. Charles. In addition, you must show the need for financial aid and have a satisfactory academic record. The loans are repayable when the students have completed their educations. Completed applications, with all supporting documents, including school transcripts, references and financial aid forms, must be postmarked by April 15, 1988. Limited number of applications may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office or send a stamped, self-addressed business size envelope to: The Scholarship Foundation of St. Louis 8215 Clayton Road, St. Louis, MO 63117.

MISSOURI SENATE HOTLINE

The Missouri Senate has created a toll-free hotline, 1-800-392-0283, which is available for use by all Missourians during the legislative season.

RUSSIAN TAPES AVAILABLE

Russian reel to reel language tapes are available for student use. Contact Jim Haukap Ext 296.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CONSULTATION ON PEACE STUDIES

A consultation, sponsored by the Presbyterian Church, on the topic of "Let's Build a Peace Studies Curriculum," will take place at Lindenwood College November 18-20, 1988. Faculty, students, and administrators who wish to be informed about this consultation as additional information becomes available should contact Candy Cundiff in Dean Keck's office, Ext 384.

JOB FAIR

The second annual "Gateway to Careers" Job Fair will take place on Friday March 11, 1988, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at Forest Park Community College. Eligible participants will have a graduation date between May 1987 and August 1988. The cost is $7.00. For more information, contact Debbie Coats, Ext. 307.