PEOPLE NEWS & NOTES

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL TV STUDIO

Jonathan Frid, alias Barnabas Collins from the famed TV soap "Dark Shadows," presents "Fools and Friends" on March 25 & 26 in Jelkyl Theatre at 8 p.m. Frid's eerie narrative includes tales from the "fright" masters: Poe, King, Shaw and others. Arrangements for this event have been coordinated by alumna Glenda Raef Schaefer to benefit the Lindenwood Television Studio. A workshop from 9 a.m. till noon on March 26 features Frid and his co-producer, Mary O'Leary, sharing production, performance and stage techniques. Call the college box office at 946-2004 for reservations and ticket prices. There is a special discount for attending both the workshop and a performance, plus student discounts, so get your tickets today.

GRADUATION GEAR FOR THE YEAR

Cap and gown measurements will be taken from February 15 through March 18 at the campus bookstore. Charges to be paid at the time of measurements are: $10.00/undergraduate degrees or $16.00/masters degrees. The bookstore hours for your convenience are: Monday-Thursday 8 a.m.—6 p.m. and Friday 8 a.m.—5 p.m.

WILHITE ACCEPTS MORE LEADERSHIP FOR LINDENWOOD

Board director, Clayton E. Wilhite, chief executive and managing director of D'Arcy, Masius, Benton & Bowles, has been appointed development chairman to the Lindenwood Board of Directors. Wilhite has been chairman of the Business Partnership Campaign for the past two years, and has led a successful campaign effort to new heights in corporate giving for Lindenwood College. His enthusiasm and persistence on the college's behalf are surmounted only by his willingness to devote innumerable energies promoting Lindenwood. The college's corporate brochure, and most recently, the 1987 Annual Report were designed and coordinated by D'Arcy through Wilhite's direction.

WHAT DOES "KCLC" STAND FOR?

According to Jim Maurer, Southwestern Bell's St. Charles Manager and Lindenwood Overseer, the college's radio station call letters mean "Keep Contributing to Lindenwood College." Maurer's enthusiasm exhibits the conviction of the college's board of overseers and his personal assistance on the KCLC Board of Control. The latest count for the KCLC membership drive: $12,500 raised in cash and pledges and 180 new members.

ST. CHARLES LIONS CLUB AND OVERSEERS CO-SPONSOR "THE CONNERS"

The St. Charles Lions Club and Overseers development chairman Jim Fitz announce an evening of energetic musical entertainment with "The Connors" on Monday, May 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. The Lions Club recently established a new scholarship for a visually-impaired student, who will be selected to attend Lindenwood College. Tickets for this event are $12.50 per person, and a special dinner package may be purchased for $25.00. Proceeds from this family event benefit the Lion's Club Scholarship Fund at Lindenwood. For more information call 949-2000 extension 337.

COLLEGE AND ST. LOUIS SCIENCE CENTER JOIN FORCES

Lindenwood and the St. Louis Science Center join for the third year to present a science drama on February 20, 21, 27 and 28 at 12:00 noon at the St. Louis Science Center in Forest Park. This year's subject is George Washington Carver and recognizes Black History Month. John Banks plays the lead, Paul Gatrell provides technical direction and Marsha Parker offers dramaturgy assistance. The production, written and directed by Bryan Reeder, is open to the public.
