LINDENWOOD

Former Reagan aide to speak

By MEGHAN HEARST

Becky Norton Dunlop, vice president of external relations at the Heritage Foundation and a former advisor to President Reagan, will present an economic policy lecture from 3-4 p.m. April 20 at Lindenwood University.

The lecture will be based on Dunlop's book, Clearing the Air, and will be held in the Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room in the Spellmann Campus Center. The book reflects Dunlop's experiences as Secretary of National Resources for the Commonwealth of Virginia and focuses on current environmental and natural resource challenges in the context of federalism.

Prior to joining the Heritage Foundation and serving as secretary of Natural Resources, Dunlop was a senior official in the Reagan White House. She served as deputy assistant to the President for presidential personnel, special assistant to the president and director of his cabinet office.

Dunlop also will be interviewed by LUHE-TV, Lindenwood University's television station, which broadcasts to more than 100,000 cable subscribers in St. Charles County on channel 26.

The lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, call 949-4742.
