PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

COLLEGE ANNOUNCES "PARENTS OF THE YEAR" CONTEST

The Lindenwood College Development, Public Relations and Alumni departments are sponsoring the first annual "Parents of the Year" Contest. Students may write a brief paragraph describing their parents. Forms for the contest have been distributed to all mailboxes. Entries will be judged on originality and content, and prizes will be awarded in first, second, and third-place categories. Please COMPLETE ENTRIES BEFORE APRIL 1 and return to Kenton Kolker, Campus Box 714. For more information call ext. 337 or stop by MAB 105.

DEADLINE EXTENDED FOR SUBMISSION TO THE "GRIFFIN"

According to Michele Fehlings, the deadline for submissions to the "Griffin" student literary publication has been extended to Friday, March 18. Send all submissions to Campus Box 692.

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE REMINDS STUDENTS TO RENEW AID

Just another reminder that all financial aid recipients must RENEW ALL AID for the 1988-89 academic year. Recipients must fill out new forms each year for federal/state aid or scholarship funds. 1988-89 Needs Analysis packets and Scholarship applications are available NOW. Hurry to beat the deadlines.

SBDC ANNOUNCES "COLLEGIATE-ENTREPRENEUR-OF-THE-YEAR" AWARD COMPETITION

The Missouri Small Business Development Centers (SBDC) and the Institute of Entrepreneurial Studies at St. Louis University are co-sponsoring the Collegiate-Entrepreneur-of-the-Year Award to recognize outstanding achievement of a full-time graduate or undergraduate student in Missouri during 1987. Local winners will compete for the state honor and a plaque will be awarded during Small Business Week, May 8-13. For applications or more information call the SBDC at 534-7232 or contact the college's business administration department. APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 4

OFFICE OF PROGRAMS & RESIDENCES REPORTS FOOD SURVEY RESULTS

Results of the campus food service survey show that 75% of the resident students responded and 15% of the commuter students & staff returned a completed survey. Some items of interest:

Food Service offers a meat tray as an alternative food selection. Also, peanut butter and jelly are always available and nutritious. Lobster tails were requested. Unfortunately, they are too expensive.

Music has been requested for the lunchtime. KCLC AM 660 plays during the lunches.

More variety in breakfast service was requested and now includes BISCUITS & GRAVY on Wednesdays and Saturdays and YOGURT is also available every morning.

The Booth Area Contest replies are pouring in and as the cafeteria curtains go up with lattice work, planter boxes and Tiffany lights, we still need more input from the students. Please take time to fill in your contest sheets and leave them in the contest box in the cafe. The Food Service Committee would like to say, "Thanks for your help and ideas!"

INSURANCE BOOKLETS NOW AVAILABLE

If you have college health insurance, please stop by the Personnel Office and ask Adranna Stapleton for your new booklet TODAY.

DAY ADMISSIONS DIRECTOR EXTENDS THANKS TO WEEKEND VOLUNTEERS

Peter Pitts would like to thank all those who helped with the Motley and Presidential Scholarship Days at Lindenwood College. Everyone, including interviewers, student panelists, food service personnel, photo-graphers, security and maintenance personnel helped to make these special scholarship programs a success. In the two Saturdays, there were 83 prospective students and some of their parents on campus. Most of these students, thanks to those who helped, will attend Lindenwood next Fall. MANY THANKS AGAIN!

"CONVERSATIONS WITH SEMPLE" AND WORKSHOP OFFERED ON MARCH 22

The St. Louis Black Repertory Company will present "Conversations With Semple" on Tuesday, March 22 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. This free program includes uprisingly hilarious anecdotes with unusual, profound twists. Based on the works of Langston Huges, it offers an inside look at the fast-paced life in Harlem. There will be a workshop on Black Theatre immediately following the performance. This production is free and open to the public.

GUESS WHO FOR APRIL FOOL'S

The Lindenwood Bookstore is sponsoring its annual baby picture contest in honor of April Fool's Day this year. Certain campus personalities are on display as you have never seen them before. Come in and guess who's who and win a $5.00 gift certificate. The winners will be announced on APRIL 1, of course.
