
COMMUNIQUE

Vol. 6 No. 31

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

March 22, 1988

PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

JOIN WALK AMERICA

Help the March of Dimes. Organize a team of walkers for Walk America on April 23. Prizes awarded to top fundraisers. The 13-mile walk starts and ends at Frontier Park on the St. Charles riverfront. Call ext. 222 and sign up TODAY.

"CONVERSATIONS WITH SEMPLE" AND WORKSHOP OFFERED ON MARCH 22

The St. Louis Black Repertory Company will present "Conversations With Semple" on Tuesday, March 22 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. This free program, based on the works of Langston Hughes, includes uprisingly hilarious anecdotes with unusual, profound twists. There will be a workshop on Black Theatre following the performance. This production is free and open to the public.

CONGRATS TO STEERING COMMITTEE

Faculty and staff members of "Project Peace," the Lindenwood/Soviet Exchange Program, have selected a steering committee for the trip to Azerbaijan State University in Baku. The steering committee president will be Ron Watermon. Vice-presidents are: Christy Diven, outbound program; Susan Marsh, inbound program; Kresno Adji Djayandaru, orientation; Wendy Brotherlin, publicity; and Ralph Godsy, finance. Requirements for participation in "Project Peace" will be posted and application forms will be available sometime in the next two weeks. Twelve students will be selected through a non-partial screening process.

WANTED: MODELS FOR FASHION PHOTOGRAPHY CLASS

According to Hans Levi, Lindenwood's photography instructor, the Fashion Photography Class needs animated personalities to model on Tuesday and Friday afternoons. A knowledge of make-up is useful, but not required. Models will receive beautiful photos and a special thanks for their efforts. Please contact Hans Levi, ext. 283 after 11 a.m. weekdays, or leave a note for Hans at the Campus Post Office.

COTILLION '88 HEADS FOR A LANDING

Get your best on and head out to the Embassy Suites Hotel at Laclede Landing for the Lindenwood College Spring Cotillion '88 on Saturday, March 26 from 8 p.m. till 1 a.m. Semi-formal attire is required. The cost is only $2 per person or $3 per couple and the event will feature the outtasight sounds of "Galaxy" with a cash bar and free hors d'oeuvres. Students, faculty and staff are welcome and a special invitation is extended to all evening college and LCIE students. The Embassy Suites can accommodate Cotillion guests. Room prices begin at $83 for two. All rooms are six-person suites and the cost includes two hours of free cocktails in the hotel plus a free cooked-to-order breakfast for each registered guest. For room reservations, call Natalie in sales at 314/241-4200 and be sure to tell her you are with the Lindenwood Cotillion. For more information on Cotillion, contact Mark Hopper at Campus Box 271.

CALLING ALL MEMBERS

All faculty & staff in civic clubs are asked to call Kenton Kolker at ext. 337 so a meeting can be held in the next two weeks. Thank you!

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS SPONSOR GREAT FLICK

The International Student Organization is sponsoring the showing of "Ran," a movie about 16th century Japan, on March 29 at 7 p.m. in the Student Center. Directed by Akira Kurosawa, Japan's most revered director, "Ran" is another "King Lear" masterpiece that mixes Japanese tradition with loyalty, betrayal, love and ambition. "Ran" has received rave reviews as the Best Film of 1985 by the National Society of Film Critics. It is realistic and sometimes a bit gorey, but it has a plot that will grab you and keep you till the end. The campus community is cordially invited to attend the showing of "Ran." Foreign snacks will be provided for your added enjoyment. For more information, call Adji Djayandaru at 946-2962.

CELEBRATE WELLNESS THIS WEEK

Wellness Week is a series of programs designed to promote awareness of health and fitness within the campus community. Wellness Week highlights will include: a "Couch Potato Person" raffle; a computer-assisted health appraisal; guest speaker, Marian Koblick, talks about drugs and alcohol; guest speaker, Kathleen Martin, talks about nutrition and eating disorders; a campus-wide "Fun Run;" a self-esteem game show; games nights and more. Grab a flyer at the post office, cafeteria, or Cap Center for specific times & locations.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

Many thanks to everyone who helped make the Third Annual Faculty/Staff Breakfast another fun one. And a special thanks to all the cafeteria staffers for another delicious breakfast.

SPEND A SEMESTER IN WASHINGTON

Student who are second semester sophomore-level and above with a minimum 2.5 GPA may now apply for a full semester of studies at American University in Washington, D.C. The program offers credit for studies in American politics, foreign policy, peace and conflict resolution, economic policy, justice, or journalism. For more information, call Debbie Coats at the Cap Center, ext. 307.

LINDENWOOD NIGHT AT BUSCHHHH

Thanks to an extra effort by Susan Sagarra, student intern for the St. Louis Cardinals, all students, faculty and staff may attend a CARDINALS vs. CUBS GAME on Monday, April 11 for only $5.00. Ticket reservations must be made by Friday, March 25 and money received in Box 562 by noon on the 25th so that Susan can get your tickets.

CALENDAR CLIPS

March 21 - 25

FACULTY ART EXHIBIT

Harry D. Hendren Gallery, Fine Arts Building -
Hours: 9-5 weekdays and 1-4 weekends
Art, sculpture, photography, stage & costume.

March 21 - 25

"YOUNG SHOWCASE"- PHOTO EXHIBIT

Young Science Hall Foyer
Hours: 9-5 weekdays and 1-4 weekends
Contact Hans Levi, ext. 283 for photo purchase.

March 21-31

BABY PICTURE CONTEST

Guess Who's Who and Win a $5.00 gift certificate. On display at the Bookstore.

March 21-22

BOOKS LITERACY AND THINKING SKILLS CONFERENCE

Sheraton West Port Inn, St. Louis - Contact the Education Department for details

March 22

WELLNESS WEEK

Guest speaker, Marian Koblick, speaks on Gelsey Kirkland's Dancing On My Grave.
12 noon - 1 p.m., Heritage Room, Cafeteria

March 22

"CONVERSATIONS WITH SEMPLE"

St. Louis Black Repertory Program at Jelkyl Theatre, 7:30 p.m. with special workshop on Black Theatre immediately following program.

March 23

GRIFFEN CREATIVE HAPPENING

6 p.m., Butler Library Reading Room
Bring poems, short stories, monologues, artwork, photography, songs, etc. to share. Everyone welcome. Refreshments served. For more info, contact John McKee, Box 316

March 23

LAST LECTURE SERIES

Featured Speaker: Dr. Arlene Taich, dean of evening & corporate programs
Legacy Room, Ayres Cafeteria, 12 noon - 1 p.m.

March 24

WELLNESS WEEK

Guest speaker, Kathleen Martin, speaks on nutrition and eating disorders.
12 noon-1 p.m., Heritage Room, Cafeteria

March 25 - 26

PERFORMANCES & WORKSHOP OF "FOOLS AND FIENDS"

Jonathan Frid's narratives from Poe to King includes workshop, March 26 9-noon.
Performances in Jelkyl Theatre at 8 p.m.
Purchase tickets at Jelkyl Box Office.

March 25

DEADLINE FOR AFSL SCHOLARSHIP

Applications available in PR Office, Memorial Arts Building, Room 110

March 26

SPRING COTILLION

Embassy Suites Hotel, Laclede Landing
8 p.m.-1 a.m., $2/person or $3/couple
Call Natalie, 241-4200 for hotel reservations or contact Mark Hopper, Box 271 for more info.

March 29

"SEX ROLES IN THE SCHOOLS"

Heritage Room, Ayres Cafeteria 12 noon-1 p.m.
Former LC professor Rebecca Glenn lectures on stereotyping in early childhood.

March 29

"RAN"

International Student Organization sponsors movie at Student Center, 7:00 p.m. Foreign snacks will be provided.

March 30

LAST LECTURE SERIES

Guest speaker, Rev. Robert Tabscott, from the Des Peres Presbyterian Church.
Legacy Room, Cafeteria, 12 noon-1 p.m.

March 31, April 1 & 3

"THE MISS FIRECRACKER CONTEST"

Downstage Studio Theatre Performance
8 p.m., Fine Arts Building, Rm.101 - $2.00

April 1

DEADLINE FOR "PARENTS OF THE YEAR" CONTEST

Send entries to Kenton Kolker, Box 714 on or before April 1.

April 4

DEADLINE FOR ENTREPRENEUR-OF-THE-YEAR AWARD

Contact St. Louis Small Business Development Center at 534-7232 for applications.