PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

WANT TO TUTOR IN THE FALL?

The Academic Assistance Program invites interested students to apply for the position of peer tutor. Tutors are needed in all areas and students who are strong in their academic fields could help other students succeed in their studies. If you are interested in helping your fellow students, please stop by the CAP Center and fill out an application to become a peer tutor. You may use the hours for work study, housing grant, or receive payment on a cash basis. Deadline for applications is Friday, April 29.

YOUNG TO PARTICIPATE IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITY POROGRAM THIS FALL

Congratulations to Megan Young, who has been accepted to participate in the Fall 1988 Washington Semester Program at American University. Her field of study will be National Government/Public Law. Good luck, Megan!

MARTIN WINS BOOTH-NAMING CONTEST

Congratulations to Brenda Martin of North Carolina, McCluer Hall's resident. She is the winner of a $30 Bookstore Gift Certificate for her winning idea of the "Lion's Den" in the "Name the Booth Area Contest." The Food Service Committee, along with the LSG College Life Committee, will be conducting a survey to obtain additional ideas for the booth area. If you have any ideas, please submit them to Food Service Committee, Box 737. Thanks for everyone's input and ideas.

SPRING CLEAN-UP THANKS

Keeper of the Grounds "Tub" Diefenthaler, would like to extend his appreciation on behalf of the entire physical plant for everyone's assistance with the annual Spring Clean-Up Day. Your help has, once again, increased the beauty of our campus for the graduates and college visitors. A special thanks to the cafeteria for the great outdoor meal. Everyone who helped on this day should take pride in their efforts to maintain Lindenwood's exceptional landscape.

MARCH OF DIMES NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Win prizes and have some fun at the annual March of Dimes Phonathon beginning May 9. There is no "cold calling" involved, so you can expect friendly listeners when you call. If you can give some time to this worthy cause, please call Rennie at 993-6670. It's a good community service project for clubs and organizations, too.

SUMMER JOB OPPORTUNITY

The American Soybean Association has an opening (effective May 21) in their Communications Department for a Convention Registration Assistant. Help prepare for and attend the national convention in Denver, Colorado. Qualifications require excellent organizational skills and the ability to deal with people in person and on the phone. The position pays $5.00/hour. For more information call extension 237 or stop by the CAP Center.

SOCIETY OF FAMILIES HOLDS ANNUAL BOOK SALE

Sell your books on consignment through the Lindenwood parents volunteer group, Society of Families. The sale is scheduled to begin with book collections on May 3 through May 5. Check the "Calendar Clips" in this issue for the details, and plan to bring your books to the CAP Center the first week of May. For more information call Judy Cussen at extension 237.

FASHION MARKETING SPONSORS CAREERS IN RETAILING SESSIONS

Ms. Margaret Berry, manager, Famous-Barr Home Store, Northwest Plaza will speak on Thursday, April 28 at 1:50 p.m. in Cobbs Lounge, and Ms. Linda Kraska, a 1982 alumna and owner of Belenda's, will speak on Friday, April 29 at 11:30 a.m. in the Legacy Room, Ayres Cafeteria. Berry, a past speaker on the Lindenwood campus, will present her insight into the retail possibilities for fashion marketing employment today. Kraska, whose clothing store furnished the fashions for the Alumni Fashion Show last February, will speak about her career ladder which recently culminated in her purchase of the very successful Blenda's this Spring. Plan to attend these interesting presentations and learn some inside scoops on the fashion marketing business.
