Search Begins for the Associate Provost of Curriculum & Experiential Learning

The Office of the Provost seeks applications for the position of Associate Provost for Curriculum and Experiential Learning. The Associate Provost will

- provide strategic leadership on the development of internship, study abroad, and experiential learning opportunities for Lindenwood students;
- collaborate with faculty, staff, and administration on matters of curriculum and academic planning;
- oversee Career Services, the Study Abroad Office, and Academic Services; and
- propose and implement policy changes that promote academic excellence and diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Required Qualifications: terminal degree; experience as faculty member and academic administrator.

Review of applications begins June 4 and will continue until the position is filled. The committee aims to fill the position by June 24 for a July 1 start.
