PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 1988!

SENIOR WEEK HAPPENINGS

The following schedule may help you remember, or forget, some important parts of this special week as the Class of '88 prepares to walk the "miracle mile" to that diploma heaven in the quad.

May 9-13

PICK UP CAP AND GOWN AT BOOKSTORE.

Hours: 8-5, Monday-Thurs. and 8-6 on Friday.

May 11

GRADUATION REHEARSAL.

Roemer Hall, front steps, 3-4:30 p.m.

May 13

BACCALAUREATE

St. Charles Presbyterian Church, 7:30 p.m.
Senior reception hosted by the alumni will follow in the Fine Arts Building. Faculty and staff are invited to attend.

May 14

COMMENCEMENT '88

Begins at 10 a.m. in front of Sibley. Come early to get your cap on straight--and bring your tickets in case of rain. Tickets are like umbrellas, when you don't have them it rains.

SAY YOUR GOODBYES TO MRS. SIBLEY AND CHECK OUT MICHELE'S ANTIQUE CLOTHING EXHIBIT IN SIBLEY PARLOR FROM 8:30 till 1:30 ON GRADUATION DAY. ASK YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS TO BROWSE THROUGH THIS FINE DISPLAY OF LINDENWOOD'S HISTORIC PAST.

WESTPORT CENTER ON THE MOVE

Lindenwood's off-campus center at West Port will move one block East of West Port Plaza Drive to the first floor of the 12000 Page Building on June 1, 1988. The new address is 11960 Westline Industrial Drive, St. Louis, MO 63146. Maggie Kracke, director of off-campus centers, said the move would provide more classroom space, food service, and a patio/reading area for students.

As in previous years, the summer editions of "Communique" will be published every other week beginning with this edition. Deadline for written submissions is 5 p.m. every other Thursday to "Communique," Campus Box 652. Thank you!

MRS. SIBLEY'S ATTIC SALE NEEDS BOOKS

Attention Seniors and anyone on a cleaning kick: The Attic Sale needs used books, including paperbacks, hard cover and cookbooks for the St. Charles Lindenwood Alumni Club booth at the fifth annual Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale. Proceeds will go toward Lindenwood scholarships for students. To donate your books call Esther at 949-2000 ext. 317, or drop them off at her office in the Memorial Arts Building, Room 204.

SAGARRAS NAMED LINDENWOOD "PARENTS OF THE YEAR'S"

The Lindenwood College "Parents of the Year" have been selected for 1988, and the winners are:

1ST PLACE - Ronald and Earlyne Sagarra, parents of Senior Susan Sagarra

2ND PLACE - Kenneth and Anna Mae Borgmeyer, parents of Senior Barbara Borgmeyer

3RD PLACE - Ronald and Katherine Schwartz, parents of Senior Terry Schwartz.

The contest, in its first year at Lindenwood, was judged by the Alumni, Development and Public Relations offices. Commenting on the selection, Kenton Kolker of development said, "The contest was very difficult to judge and all applications for the award that were submitted were terrific." He added, "Thanks to everyone who entered the contest and our judges. "Parents of the Year" will become an annual event at Lindenwood College.

ALLEN, ARNOLD AND KIRBY WIN STATE-WIDE NEWSPAPER COMPETITION

Three LindenWorld staffers have won awards for articles published in the reformatted student newspaper. Pam Allen's article on the Lindenwood Soviet Exchange took third place for newswriting in the Missouri College Newspaper Association contest. Joe Arnold and Reid Kirby won second place in the Information Graphics category, with their visual display of LSG activities fees distribution.
