LINDENWOOD

Environmental expert to speak

Environmental expert Dr. Indur Goklany will present a lecture “Is Climate Change the 21st Century’s Most Urgent Environmental Problem?” Tuesday, Sept. 28 at Lindenwood University.

Goklany has worked in federal and state governments, the private sector, and various think tanks on a variety of developmental, natural resource and environmental issues. He has written well over 80 monographs, book chapters and papers on various scientific and public policy issues.

The lecture will be held at 3 p.m. in the Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room of the Spellmann Center. Admission is free and the event is open to the public.

The lecture is part of Lindenwood Economic Policy Lecture Series. For more information, please contact Dr. Kenneth Chilton at 636-949-4742.
