Lions Baseball Has Final Home Games Of 2018

The Lindenwood baseball team has its final home games of the year this week. On Tuesday evening, the Lions face Missouri S&T in a 6 p.m. non-conference game. Over the weekend, Lindenwood will host Emporia State in a three-game series. Game one will be Friday at 6 p.m., the middle game will be on Saturday at 3 p.m., and the series will conclude on Sunday at 1 p.m. The stakes are high in the series against Emporia State. The Lions need a sweep over the Hornets in order to guarantee a spot in the MIAA Tournament. The Lions need at least one or two wins, and then some help throughout the rest of the league, in order to also have a shot at earning the final spot in the conference tournament. Last season, Lindenwood and Emporia State split four games, with the Lions winning the biggest contest, a 12-11 13-inning victory in the NCAA Division II Regional Tournament. Be sure to take advantage of the great weather, and come out to the Lou Brock Sports Complex and cheer on your Lions for the final time in 2018.

Patterson-Mills Presents at Conference

On Friday, April 13, Dr. Sarah Patterson-Mills presented at the Illinois School Counseling Association State Conference in Springfield, Illinois on the Illinois Developmental School Counseling Model. Over the 2017--2018 school year, Patterson-Mills was a member of the writing team in Illinois that revised and added many new advanced features to the Model.

Due to the hyperlinked model, social emotional and common core curriculum crosswalk tools, and living bank of counseling classroom counseling lessons, the Illinois Model is now receiving national attention from our flagship professional organization, The American School Counseling Association.
