ADMISSIONS HOLDS THIRD REGISTRATION

V. Peter Pitts, director of day admissions, announced that the College will hold its third of four registration days for new, full-time undergraduate day students on July 29 at 9 a.m. in the Margaret Leggat Butler Library.

The program requires all attendees be admitted to Lindenwood College prior to July 23, 1988. Full-time undergraduate students admitted after July 23 will be eligible to attend a fourth registration session which will be held in August. The registration program is held for enrollment into the 1988 Fall semester at Lindenwood.

Financial aid and scholarships are still available to new, undergraduate full-time day students on a first-come, first-serve basis.

If you know of anyone interested in undergraduate studies for the full-time day program, please encourage them to call Peter Pitts at 949-2000, Ext. 213.

EVENING ADMISSIONS SPONSORS FAST-TRACK PROGRAM ORIENTATION

On Thursday, August 25, the Lindenwood College Evening Division will host a free information session to talk about courses of study in the Lindenwood College for Individualized Education (LCIE) fast-track degree programs. The free session will begin at 7 p.m. in Young Science Hall Lounge.

LCIE is a program celebrating its 13th year of providing service to adult students who must choose an alternative to a traditional day college program. In this accelerated learning format, students usually meet for one night per week. The classes, held over an 11-week period, are in the seminar format with an emphasis on writing and class discussions rather than testing.

Students may earn nine credit hours per quarter in such undergraduate and graduate programs as: Business Administration, Communications, Professional Psychology, Valuation

Sciences/Appraisal and Human and Organizational Development.

The August orientation session will give an overview of how LCIE works and how programs may be designed to meet individual educational needs. Reservations are requested and may be made by calling 949-2000, Ext. 271.
