Today's Headlines

Lindenwood Belleville Weekly Digest Debuts Today!

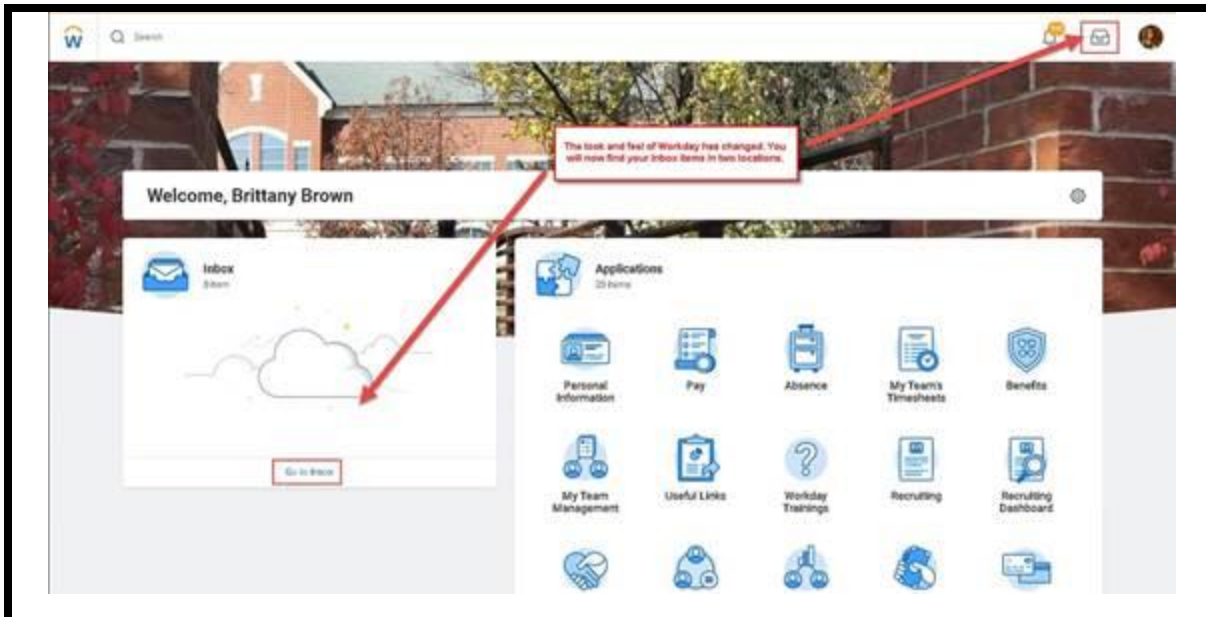

The Belleville campus will receive the debut issue of the Lindenwood Belleville Weekly Digest today. The Lindenwood Belleville Digest will focus on Belleville and any items that may affect both St. Charles and Belleville.

To have your listing appear in the Lindenwood Belleville Weekly Digest, email your submission verbatim (be sure to proof read!) to BVDigest@lindenwood.edu by noon each Thursday. The Lindenwood Belleville Weekly Digest will be sent each Friday morning. Information submitted past the deadline may not be included in the Friday edition.

Workday Gets a New Look Monday!

Workday will have a new look beginning on Jan. 8! There are now two options for navigating to your Inbox items, as well as a beautiful photo of the Lindenwood campus in the background.

Updates to the Employee Guidebook

Some additions and alternations have been made to the Employee Guidebook:

- The recently modified section on faculty rank and promotion, which starts on page 66, received some editing.

The updated version of the Employee Guidebook can be found under “Useful Links” and “Guidebooks.”

Last Call: Request for Computer Science Projects

If you are still in need of a customized computer program that you would be willing to have undergraduate students work on, please let me (Stephen Blythe, sblythe@lindenwood.edu) know as soon as possible. I will accept informal proposals and determine if they represent a good fit for our students during the first week of February.

As the primary part of a Computer Science course (CSC43000 – Senior Projects) that I will be teaching this Spring, students are required to work on a "real world" group programming project. In order to facilitate this, I would like to gather several potential projects from campus sources. If you have a potential computer programming project, I'd like to hear about it. Mathison New Director of the Student Counseling and Resource Center

We are excited to welcome Dr. Whitney Mathison to Lindenwood University as the new director of the SCRC. She starts today, January 5, 2018.

Dr. Mathison earned her Ph.D. in Family Therapy from SLU, has over fifteen years in the counseling field, and ten years of experience as a licensed professional counselor. She has extensive training with substance abuse, crisis management, immigrants, LGBTQIA, and diverse populations.

In addition, she has presented at national conferences and taught as an adjunct instructor at various colleges since 2009.

Wrestling Has First Home Dual On Sunday

The Lindenwood wrestling team has its first home dual meet of the season this Sunday afternoon at Hyland Arena. The Lions will open up 2017 by taking on Ouachita Baptist in a non-conference matchup. Action will begin at 4 p.m. between the Lions and Tigers.

Admission is free for fans to come out and cheer on the Lindenwood wrestlers.

Spring 2018 Group Exercise and Personal Training Schedules
