Men's Volleyball and Women's Gymnastics Have Home Openers This Week

The Lindenwood men's volleyball and women's gymnastics teams both started their 2018 seasons last week, and have their first home events of the year this upcoming week.

The men's volleyball squad, which won the Grow the Game Challenge in Nashville, Tenn. last week, has two conference games this week at Hyland Arena. First-year head coach Joe Kosciw and the Lions will face McKendree at 7 p.m. on Thursday. Saturday evening, Lindenwood will take on Quincy at 7 p.m.

The gymnastics team has its home opener on Friday night at 7 p.m. at Hyland Arena. The three-time MIC Champions and two-time USA Gymnastics Women's Collegiate National Champions have a tri-meet against Centenary and Alaska Anchorage.

Reed Presents "Economics Pep Talk" Jan. 25

Lawrence W. "Larry" Reed from the Foundation for Economic Education (FEE), presents "Economics Pep Talk: The Significance of Studying Economics While Keeping in Mind the Importance of Character" 3-4 p.m. on Jan. 25 at Dunseth Auditorium in Harmon Hall. Reed's latest book – Real Heroes – Inspiring True Stories of Courage, Character and Conviction, featuring biographies of some 40 individuals covering 2,500 years of history will be the basis for his economics 'pep talk' about the significance of studying economics while keeping in mind the importance of character.

Antivirus Software Update

In order to provide better endpoint virus and malware protection, the Lindenwood IT department will be installing a new Trend Micro Anti-Virus client on all Lindenwood owned devices over the next two weeks. Once the Trend

Micro agent is installed on your machine, it will remove the old Microsoft agent. There should be no action required on your part.

Thank you,

Vice President for Information Technology and CIO

Inaugural MLK, Jr. Leadership Award presented by Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Taskforce

Do you know someone apart of our campus community who embodies the work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.? If so, nominate them for the MLK, Jr. Leadership Award. The Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Taskforce is now accepting submissions for this award in three categories; faculty, staff and student. Please submit nominations no later than Friday, January 19, 2018 by 5 p.m.

The intent of the MLK, Jr. Leadership Award is to grant distinction and recognition to those individuals in the Lindenwood University community who embody the spirit of Dr. King's work. We seek the nomination of individuals who embrace creativity, leadership, scholarship, and/or service towards an outcome intended to positively impact the Lindenwood community, with particular emphasis on such activities as they relate to the core values of diversity, equity, and inclusion at the heart of our task force's work. Please follow the link below to submit your nominations.
