PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

FROM GINGKOS TO GORBACHEV

ATTENTION everyone interested in Project Peace: The Linden-Soviet Exchange: There will be an organizational meeting Thursday night, September 29 at 6 p.m. in the Student Center. If you are interested in business, finance, accounting, public relations, international relations, teaching or you just want to have a good time while going to school, join one of Lindenwood's most exciting programs. Help us welcome our new friends from the U.S.S.R. and get involved in this historical opportunity. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please contact Elaine Francis at Box 225.

ON-CAMPUS RECRUITER

A representative from New York Life Insurance Co. will be on Lindenwood's campus Thursday, October 13 from 1-9 p.m., to conduct individual interviews. Positions are available for Sales Representatives, with the potential for Management level. To sign up, contact Debbie Coats, Ext. 307.

RESULTS OF THE DRUG I.Q. QUIZ

The following students, staff and faculty won prizes for getting between one and three incorrect answers on the QUIZ distributed last Monday at lunch to kick off Drug Awareness Week: Marta Ault, Paul McClendon, Carol Haukap, Kathi Sullivan, Lisa Sorensen, Jean Fields, Scott Lee, Bev Pentsil, Lynette Basler, Ron Crawford and Matt Kwak. Anyone who has not received his or her prize can pick it up at the CAP Center.

If you are interested in finding out how you did on the quiz, look for completed quizzes posted in various locations around the campus. Thanks to everyone who participated!

FOREIGN SERVICE INFORMATION DAY

On September 28, St. Louis University will host an Information Day to acquaint students and faculty with career opportunities in the U.S. Foreign Service. A colloquium will take place from 3-4:30 p.m., immediately followed by a reception. For more information, contact Debbie Coats at Ext. 307.

SABBATICAL LEAVE APPLICATION DEADLINE

The deadline for submission of applications for sabbatical leaves for the 1989-90 academic year is October 15. The application should be sent to the Dean of Faculty and should be accompanied by a supporting letter from the Department Chair-person (or other full-time faculty member appointed by the Dean of Faculty if the applicant is a Department Chair-person). This support letter must address the merits of the proposal and include staffing recommendations.

FASHION MARKETING MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Fashion Marketing Group on Wednesday, September 28th, at 1:00 p.m. in Cobbs Lounge. This group is open to all Lindenwood students.
