LINDENWOOD WELCOMES ALUMNI TO REUNION '88

People, News & Notes

Boyer Tribute, Auction/Dinner Highlight Reunion '88

Lindenwood College will welcome alumni as they return for the Annual Alumni Reunion '88 from Friday, October 14 through Sunday, October 16.

Highlights of this year's reunion are: a tour of downtown St. Charles, an alumni art exhibit in the Harry D. Hendren Gallery, productions of "The 1940's Radio Hour," a musical performed at Jelkyl Theatre, the first alumni auction/dinner, the Jean Fields Tunnel Runners Film Festival, the annual alumni luncheon, receptions and a special memorial tribute to Martha May Boyer, former Lindenwood speech and communications professor who founded KCLC 40 years ago.

The Boyer tribute will feature reminiscences of Professor Boyer's innovative teaching methods by former students including Robin Smith, news anchorwoman for KMOV-TV, Channel 4; Kathy Leonard, public relations director for Lambert St. Louis International Airport; Gordon Atkins, account executive for KMJM Majic 108-FM; Nancy Calvert, public relations and advertising director for General Motors-Electromotive in Chicago; Margaret Bittman, admissions counselor for Tarkio College and other alumni and friends. The ceremony will be held in Sibley Chapel at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, October 15.

For more information about the 1988 Alumni Reunion, please see the "Calendar Clips" section of this newsletter for dates and times of the events, or call Esther Fenning, alumni activities director, at 949-2000, Ext. 317.

Reception for McLeane, Machens Opens Reunion Weekend

The work of two Lindenwood College graduates, Jody DePew McLeane and Jean M. Machens, will be shown in the Hendren Gallery through October 27.

A reception is scheduled for Friday, October 14 from 4:30 to 6 p.m. as the opening event at the college's annual alumni weekend.

McLeane, a 1968 alumna, has distinguished herself as a pastel artist for a number of years. She will exhibit works in that medium for the October show.

Machens, also of the Class of 1968, recently completed a master's degree in fine arts at Northeastern Missouri State University at Kirksville. She will show paintings and sketches associated with her master's studies.

The exhibit and reception are open to the public. Gallery hours are: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. For more information about the exhibit, call Dean Eckert at 949-2000, Ext. 240.

Lindenwood Dedicates Stadium, Moore Extends Thanks

The beautifully renovated Harlen C. Hunter Sports Complex received a colorful and moving dedication ceremony befitting its spectacular new appearance. On September 28 college friends gathered for the half-time dedication ceremonies with KMOX-AM radio emcee Bill Wilkerson, Board of Directors Development Chairman Clayton Wilhite of D'Arcy Masius Benton & Bowles, Dr. Harlen C. Hunter and President Spainhower. The event also featured team introductions by Athletics Director Debbie Kehm.

Jim Moore, director of capital projects, would like to express his thanks to all the people from the Physical Plant/Maintenance Department and Physical Plant Director Bruce Edler for their cooperation and hard work in the completion of the stadium project. With their help, the project was a huge success and has become another beautiful landmark for Lindenwood College. Thanks again!

Peters Needs Church Members Assistance

If any of our faculty/staff are members of a Presbyterian church in the St. Louis metropolitan area, please call Judy Peters in the Development Office, extension 400. Your help is needed with a research project. Thank you!

English Department Announces Luncheon Get-together

Students, faculty and staff are invited to hear Lindenwood Alumna Margaret Wolitarsky's presentation of "Portrait of A Lady: The Ugly Woman In English Literature" on Tuesday, October 18 from noon till 1:15 p.m. The informal get-together will be held in the English Lounge. Refreshments will be served and brown bag lunches are welcomed.

PR Sets Photo Reprint Charges

Increased demands for photographic reprints and the rising costs of film, paper and events coverage are causing an increased need to limit the number of free reprints from the Office of Public Relations. Departments may receive three complimentary reprints. Beyond the three free prints, nominal charges for black and white reprints are:

1 - 8"x10" reprint $3.00

1 - 5"x7" reprint $2.00

1 - 3"x5" reprint $1.00

Payments for reprints will be deposited in PR's photo expense account. Thank you for understanding our growing needs!

Wilcox Invites Students, Faculty/Staff To Roundtable Discussion

Reverend George Wilcox, college chaplain, invites interested students, faculty and staff to a luncheon roundtable discussion every other Wednesday, beginning October 12 at noon in Ayres Cafeteria. Wilcox and Father John Schneider will lead informal discussions on a wide variety of topics. The first discussion will focus on the movie, "The Last Temptation of Christ." Everyone is welcome to attend.

Catalog Supplements Arrive

The 1988-89 College Catalog Supplements have arrived and are available in the Undergraduate Dean's Office, 107 Roemer Hall, and the Registrar's Office. Faculty and students are urged to stop by for a copy.

Red Cross Blood Drive Comes to Campus

There will be a Red Cross Blood Drive on Thursday, October 13, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in McCluer Hall Lounge. If you are interested in donating, please sign up during lunch in the Cafeteria on Wednesday, October 12. Our goal this year is 45 pints. PLEASE HELP US REACH OUR GOAL! The Blood Drive is sponsored by the Hall Government. For more information call Kathy Quinn, Ext. 222.

Fashion Marketing Sets Next Meeting

The next scheduled meeting of the Fashion Marketing Group will be held on Wednesday, October 12 at 4 p.m. in Cobb's Hall Lounge. Please attend to give input on possible future events or any other ideas. For questions about the group contact Terri Janulavich, secretary, at 949-5581.

Scholarship Competition Open to All Students

Chaplain George Wilcox has information regarding the Samuel Robinson Scholarship Competition which is open to all Lindenwood students. Requirements for the scholarship include the writing of an essay on an assigned topic and the successful completion of an oral examination on the Shorter Catechism. Awards are given in the amount of $1,000. For more information call George Wilcox at 949-2000, Ext. 205.

Council Announces Changes to Employee Tuition Benefit Policy

The following changes in the employee tuition benefit policy have been approved by the President's Council and will become effective July 1, 1989.

1) No employee, spouse or dependent children may receive the tuition benefit until the employee has completed at least six months as a Lindenwood employee.

2) Every employee who opts for a tuition benefit, whether for the employee, spouse, or dependent child, shall pay a surcharge of ten percent (10%) of the total tuition cost, or the actual per capita professor's fee where the course instructor is paid on a per capita basis, plus any course fees.

3) Any non-institutional financial aid received by the person awarded an employee tuition benefit shall apply toward these surcharges and fees.

4) Under no circumstances can institutionally-funded grants or scholarships be used to pay these surcharges or fees.

5) Employee tuition benefit charges shall be payable in advance of the beginning of classwork.

6) Any provisions of previous policies that are in conflict with this policy shall be suspended by the provisions of this policy.

7) This policy shall become effective July 1, 1989.
