Munch and Mingle – Diversity Week Program

CAB is sponsoring Munch and Mingle at Evans Commons on Thursday, Feb. 15 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., to meet new people and explore different cultures at Lindenwood. Eating lunch with new people is a great way to get to know fellow Lions on campus and create new connections and friendships along the way.

This idea was created from a Diversity Dialogue where a student recommended having lunch with people you do not know. Free stadium cups will be given to the first 200 participants! We hope to have faculty and staff participate. Please see the flier for more Diversity Week events.

Student Research Conference 2018 Open for Student Submissions

The Student Research Conference is a forum for students to display their scholarly and creative projects to Lindenwood students and faculty. The fifth annual conference will take place on Wednesday, April 18, 2018. Students' work will be featured in poster formats or as presentations in concurrent sessions or panel sessions. Students can access the Student Submission form through Tuesday, March 20, 2018 on the Student Information page for further details. Contact SRC@lindnewood.edu for questions or concerns.

Student Research Conference-- Faculty Recommendations

Faculty members may nominate students who are working on or who have completed original research papers or creative projects to participate in the Student Research Conference. Students can either display a poster or give a presentation of their work at the conference. Faculty nomination forms will be until February 28 on the Student Research Conference Website.

<http://www.lindenwood.edu/academics/beyond-the-classroom/student-research/srse-faculty-nominations/>

Faculty can also recommend a panel presentation for their students. We will contact all nominated students via email and invited to submit an application, which includes a 250-word abstract describing their work. In addition, nominating a student's work does not guarantee that student's acceptance admission to the conference; students who are interested in presenting in the conference MUST submit an application.

Questions? Please contact SRC@lindenwood.edu or the website.
