PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

Door Decorating Welcomes The Season

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas. . . and it will look even more like Christmas when the Faculty/Staff Holiday Door Decorating Contest gets underway. Let the Lindenwood holiday spirit shine by decorating your office doors with holly and ivy or snowflakes and Santas. All Faculty and staff are invited to participate. The only prerequisites are that you have a door and a large measure of holiday cheer. To register for the contest, call Carole Knight at Ext. 401 with the names of the people participating, the location of the decorated door and an extension where you can be reached.

Judging will be completed by a panel of student judges by December 12, and prizes will be awarded for first place and runner up. The last day to sign up is December 2, so hurry! Get going! On Comet, on Cupid, on Snezy and Rambo. . . (Submitted by Carole Knight, alumni/development office.)

Wash. U. Professor Lectures on Afghanistan

Dr. Robert Canfield, professor and chair of the anthropology department at Washington University, will present a lecture entitled "The Impact of the Soviets' Withdrawal from Afghanistan" on November 30 at 3:30 p.m. in the Arthur S. Goodall Lounge of the college's Memorial Arts Building.

Dr. Canfield spent over 12 years teaching and doing ethnographic research in Afghanistan. He is recognized as one of America's most knowledgeable specialists on Afghanistan culture and society. His recent research focuses on the consequences of the Soviet incursions into this fragile region of Southwest Asia.

This presentation is part of "Topics on the Soviet Union," co-sponsored by the Lindenwood Soviet Exchange Program and the Lindenwood Lectures and Concerts Committee. For more information, please call Adj. Djayandaru at 946-4415. (Submitted by Adj. Djayandaru, chair of the orientation committee for the Lindenwood Soviet Exchange Program.)

United Way Campaign Exceeds Last Year's Funding

Thanks to all of you who cared, our 1988 United Way campaign was a success. Our attainment currently stands at $2,746, a 17 percent increase over last year. We are still accepting contributions, so please send yours today. These gifts help to insure that needed human services will be available in our community.

Thank you again for your generous support.

Pot Luck Brings Out the Best

This time of year is filled with special holiday traditions. The Pot Luck Luncheon has become a favorite with Lindenwood's Faculty and Staff. This year's luncheon for the faculty and staff takes place on Tuesday, December 13, at 11:45 a.m. in the Roemer foyer. Each Faculty/Staff member is invited to bring their special culinary delight. The cafeteria will provide beverages and some setups.

This is a great time to get together and share the festive atmosphere of the season. Suggested items to bring include vegetables, fruits, desserts, main dishes (casseroles, ham, etc.) and salads. Surprises (pleasant ones) are always welcomed. Please remember to label your serving dish and silverware, to make returning the empties an easy task. If you can't or don't want to cook or bake a dish, you can still participate by donating money to help defray the costs, or bring something "off the shelf." Carole Knight will coordinate the menu—we want to avoid having thirty baked-bean casseroles! Call Carole at Ext. 401 to sign up by December 8, and let's do a holiday lunch! (Submitted by Carole Knight, alumni/development office.)

President Sets Annual Decorating Day

Dear Members of the Lindenwood Faculty and Staff,

In order to make the "Share the Spirit" Christmas Walk a success, I am designating Wednesday, November 30, as "Decorating Day" on campus. All faculty and staff members are invited and encouraged to help decorate the campus. I urge all supervisors to allow employees additional time during the day so they may participate.

Most decorations will be provided by the College; however, if you would like to donate decorations, please feel free to do so. After all, this year's walk is all about sharing and giving.

The Christmas Walk, entitled "Share the Spirit," is an annual event at Lindenwood and once again is being sponsored by the Lindenwood Student Government. Under the direction of the LSG, many new and special events are planned for the December 4 Walk. This year's walk is special because it is being united with the KCLC Toy Drive that hopes to collect and distribute toys to needy families in St. Charles County.

In order to maintain the spirit of the holiday season, we need participation from all campus departments and offices. Please plan to join in the spirit of the holidays by helping to decorate the campus.

Cordially,

James I. Spainhower, President

Group Dynamics Sponsors Safety Awareness Week

Alan Shiller's group dynamics class is putting on a safety awareness week at Lindenwood. It will be held in the Heritage Room from 1 to 2 p.m. on each of the following days:

The class has a surprise planned and valuable hand-outs for everyone. Come join us. Enjoy the program, while you learn how to be safe. For more information, please contact Alan Shiller, Ext. 264. (Submitted by Anne McGrath, group dynamics class.)

Radio Association Announces Scholarship

The St. Louis Radio Association is proud to offer an annual scholarship to encourage and further the professional and academic development of outstanding broadcasting, marketing or advertising students in the metro St. Louis area. The $1,000 scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic proficiency, extracurricular activities, references and a career goals statement. Application Deadline for the 1989 Scholarship is December 16, 1988.

For applications and more information contact Lindenwood's Office of Financial Aid in Butler Hall.

Students Offer Chemistry "Warm-ups"

John Steier and Lise Smith will offer a series of Chemistry "Warm-ups" for students enrolled in Chem 111 next semester. Open to all students, the workshops will be held on November 22 and 29 and December 2 and 6, beginning at 1:50 p.m. till 3:20 in Young 401.

The "Warm-ups" are designed to give students more practice in the basic skills needed for the course and to help develop more confidence in Chemistry skills. To get the maximum benefit from these workshops, students should try to attend each session. The Chemistry "Warm-ups" are sponsored by the peer tutors of the Academic Assistance Program. CAP Center, in conjunction with the Chemistry Department.

SECURITY TIPS

Be Alert!

Don't You Be the One to Get Ripped Off!

• 10 Easy Ways to Prevent Theft

1. Don't leave valuables unsecured anywhere.
2. Always keep your room locked when no one is in it.
3. Put Books in drawers or closets, not on top of desks or beds.
4. Don't let strangers in your room or suite alone (even if they are friends of a suitemate).
5. Challenge the presence of strangers on your floor at odd hours (they may be after YOUR valuables).
6. Engrave your social security number on ALL valuables (it proves the valuable is yours if a discrepancy arises). Engraver available in Security Office.
7. Record the serial numbers and other pertinent data of all valuables and store in a safe place.
8. Stress to yourself AND suitemates the importance of not losing keys or leaving keys in the door.
9. If key is lost, contact the R.A. immediately for instructions needed to have locks changed.
10. DON'T BE APATHETIC. The next person to get ripped off may be YOU.

• What to Do If a Theft Occurs

1. Contact Lindenwood Security at Ext. 255 or Ext. 242 immediately.
2. Note exact time and place item was last seen.
3. Note exact time and place item was discovered missing.
4. Note the location and physical description of any strangers or suspicious persons in the area of the theft.
5. Obtain or note information on as many details as possible about the missing item, such as: size, color, serial number, identifying marks, value, etc.
