PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

Eugene "Jack" Kirk, 55; Taught and Directed LCIE Business Programs

Eugene John Kirk, Ph.D., known by many as "Jack," suffered a massive heart attack on November 23 and died shortly thereafter at St. Joseph's Health Center. Dr. Kirk was an esteemed faculty member at Lindenwood College for the past six years, directing the undergraduate and graduate programs in business administration for the Lindenwood College for Individualized Education (LCIE).

He received a bachelor of science degree from The Principia Colleges and in 1962 a M.B.A. from Washington University. Dr. Kirk held a doctorate with a marketing emphasis from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Before coming to Lindenwood College, he held teaching positions in marketing at the University of Missouri-Columbia, St. Louis University and Fontbonne College.

"Jack was a well-loved colleague and one of our students' favorite professors," said Dr. Arlene Taich, dean of the evening college and LCIE programs. "We will all miss him," she said.

Dr. Kirk, 55; a resident of Shrewsbury, Mo., is survived by his wife, Willette, and his mother, Mrs. Lillian Kirk of South Carolina.

The entire Lindenwood College community expresses deepest sympathy to Dr. Kirk's family and friends. A memorial service at the college is being planned.

LC Group Plans Travels to Greece, Turkey

Professor James Feely is offering a three week travel-study course to Greece and Turkey, May 15-June 5. The group will tour Crete and other islands, with stays of some length at Heraklion, Nauplion, Olympia, Delphi, Athens and Istanbul.

Alumni and friends of Lindenwood are invited to accompany the class. Students may receive credit for the trip. For more information contact Professor Feely at 949-2000, Ext. 331. (Submitted by Rhonda Shipman.)

Seasonal Cleanups? Remember The College Archives

If you are making a New Year's resolution to better organize your office or just routinely cleaning out old files, please don't discard all your old information.

According to Lindenwood Archivist Mary Ambler, we often don't realize that what we throw out today could become the "Archives of Tomorrow."

Since the preservation of the Lindenwood heritage is extremely important, please remember to send your materials to the archives. This includes all publications, faculty information (especially on new programs) and other data which may be used for future reference. Summaries of information also are welcomed.

Miss Ambler is in every Monday, so if you have questions please call her at Butler Library.

"Gateway To Careers" Offers Exciting Job Opportunities

The third annual St. Louis "Gateway to Careers" Job Fair will be held Friday, March 10, 1989, 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m., at Maryville College.

The Job Fair will provide an excellent opportunity for students to meet with a variety of employers.

To be eligible, participants must:

- Have completed or will complete Associate or Bachelor degree between May 1988 and August 1989. (Masters degrees are acceptable, but the Fair is intended primarily for undergraduates.)
- Be seeking entry level jobs.
- By Friday, February 17, 1989, submit a completed four-part registration form to the CAP Center.
- Pay a $5.00 registration fee. ONLY CHECKS OR MONEY ORDERS will be accepted. (Make checks payable to Maryville College.)
- Attend a Resume Writing/Interviewing Skills Workshop or schedule an individual appointment with Debbie Coats (CAP Center, Ext. 307).
- Submit three copies of resume to Debbie Coats.

Those who do not register by February 17 will not be admitted to the Fair until 10 a.m., and must pay a $10.00 late fee. (Submitted by Debbie Coats, CAP Center.)

Jan Garden Castro Selected as YWCA Award Recipient

The YWCA of Metropolitan St. Louis has chosen Jan G. Castro, a lecturer at Lindenwood College, to receive a Special Leadership Award for her outstanding performance in the workplace. Castro of University City will be presented the award during Leader Lunch VIII, scheduled for noon, Thursday, December 8, at the Omni International Hotel in Union Station. Castro will receive the award under the Art category.

Each year since 1981, the YWCA has recognized area women who have demonstrated leadership and service to the community in their respective fields. Traditionally, Leader Lunch has attracted more than 1,000 members of the area's civic, corporate and religious communities. For more information, contact Linda Taylor at 554-3881. (Submitted by Eric L. Clark, St. Louis YMCA.)
