Troupers Sponsor Benefit For Student Exchange

On Friday, January 27, the Lindenwood College Troupers, a performing arts support group, will sponsor a benefit to raise funds for the Lindenwood College Soviet Student Exchange Program. Tickets to the January 27 performance of the St. Louis Symphony at Powell Hall and a post-concert reception hosted by KMOV-TV News Anchor Robin Smith (Lindenwood Class of '74) will be sold for $25.00 each to benefit the exchange program.

The reception will be held at Chris Smith's home in the Central West End. Chris, who is Robin's brother, is a Lindenwood alumnus. Food and wine provided by Brandt's Gourmet Market plus valet parking will add some special touches to the reception.

To order tickets or for more information, please call Melinda Adams at Ext. 330 or stop by her office in the Memorial Arts Building, Room 107.

Let's help make this a memorable event for the students who have worked so hard for this important exchange.

Attention all clubs, groups and teams! The yearbook staff would like to snap those group pictures for this year's Linden Leaves yearbook. If you are interested, please contact Linden Leaves Editor Darren Totten at Campus Box 538 and state when and where your group will meet for their photo. Also, be sure to include a contact name and phone or campus box number for your group, so that arrangements can be made for your group photo.

The yearbook's deadline for group photos is February 20. Make sure your group is included by dropping Darren a line today. (Submitted by Darren Totten, Linden Leaves.)

Women Soccer Players Garner Top Recognition

Congratulations to all members of the Central Region All-Region Team! This year, 29 players received votes for the 12 spots on the team. Beth Neyman, Mimi Hahn and Becky Stigen were among those voted to the All-Region Team. Neyman also was again selected to the NAIA Women's Soccer All-America First Team. Honorable Mentions went to Hahn and Stigen.

Congratulations also to the 1988 NAIA Women's Soccer-Athletes! Sharon Michelle Lawson, Angela M. Sorbello and Kristen Susanne Wixson were among the 21 players who garnered top honors for terrific plays on the field and in the classroom. (Reprinted from the January 20 edition of "Communique.")

Admissions Sponsors Phonathon

Lindenwood's Day Admissions Office is sponsoring a one-day "phonathon" on Sunday, January 29 from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Callers will contact prospective students, primarily high school seniors, to determine their interest in Lindenwood and encourage them to apply for admission.

Interested faculty, staff and students are invited to join the day admissions team to help with this important phone effort. The calls are easy and actually a lot of fun. If you are interested in helping, please call Peter Pitts at Ext. 212 for more details. (Submitted by Peter Pitts, Day Admissions.)

Dr. Balog Receives Appointment As Acting Dean of Faculty

Dr. Daniel N. Keck has announced that as of January 3, 1989, Dr. C. Edward Balog will assume responsibilities as Acting Dean of Faculty. In this capacity, Dr. Balog will supervise the academic departments, the Library and the Registrar's Office. Correspondence related to his responsibilities should be directed to the Dean of Faculty's Office and appointments should be made through Kathy Schneider at Ext. 206.

Dr. Balog is in his 26th year of faculty service to Lindenwood College. He is well-known as a professor in the history department and has been the department's chairperson for the past five years. Dr. Balog also is chairperson of the Educational Policies Committee and Division of Social Sciences at Lindenwood. He holds a doctorate in history from the University of Illinois and earned his undergraduate and graduate degrees in history at West Virginia University.

Local community involvement has interested Dr. Balog for a number of years. He has been president of the St. Charles City-County Library District's Board of Trustees; a member of the board of directors and secretary-treasurer for the St. Charles Library Building Corporation and a member and vice-chairman for the Citizens Planning and Advisory Committee, an advising group for community development. Dr. Balog is currently a member of the St. Charles City Council, plus an assortment of academic and historical associations.

1989 Who's Who Includes Nine LC Students

The 1989 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES will include the names of nine students from Lindenwood who have been selected as national outstanding leaders. The following will join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations:

Debra Fiscus	Ralph Godsy	Sherri Grothaus
Sharon Lawson	Lori Paese	Karen Ulrich
Jennifer Vorst	Ron Watermon	Kristen Wixson

On behalf of the entire Lindenwood College community, CONGRATULATIONS! for your outstanding achievements in academics, community service and leadership in extracurricular activities.

Pepper Presents Lecture On Soviet Union

Dr. Max Pepper, professor and chairman of the Department of Community Medicine at St. Louis University, will give an informal slide-lecture on the Soviet Union on Tuesday, January 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Goodall Lounge of the Memorial Arts Building. Dr. Pepper and 19 medical students from the university spent several weeks in the Soviet Union the summer of 1987. Azerbaijan, the republic that the Lindenwood delegation is slated to visit this spring, was one of the areas they visited. Dr. Pepper's experiences will add much perspective to the current Lindenwood-Soviet exchange. The slide-lecture is free. It is sponsored by the All-College Reading List Committee and is open to the public. (Submitted by Jean Taylor, All-College Reading List Committee.)

Quinn Receives Appointment

Dean of College Life Dr. Allen Schwab has announced the appointment of Kathy Quinn as Assistant Dean of College Life for Programs and Residences. Kathy has been the acting assistant dean of college life for programs and residences for the past six months. (Submitted by Carolyn Shelp, College Life.)
