Staff Evaluations

It is that time of year again! The staff self-evaluation phase is now open. Staff now have one month to continue uploading evidence and complete the self-evaluation before meeting with their supervisors from April 1-15. For assistance, please email EvalSoftware@lindenwood.edu.

Lindenwood's NCAA Sports Host 12 Games Throughout The Week

The Lindenwood NCAA athletics program will host 12 games on campus throughout this week. Half of those games will be from the softball team. The Lady Lions enter the week at .500 on the season, and will have a non-conference doubleheader on Tuesday versus Saint Louis College of Pharmacy (2 p.m.). Over the weekend, Lindenwood starts conference play with a Friday doubleheader versus Missouri Western (2 p.m.) and a Saturday twinbill against Northwest Missouri (12 p.m.).

The women's lacrosse team, ranked third in the nation, has its conference opener on Wednesday night with a 7 p.m. game at Hunter Stadium versus Fort Lewis. The men's lacrosse has a top-15 showdown on Saturday afternoon at noon. The Lions will be taking on last year's NCAA Champions, Limestone.

The men's volleyball squad goes out of conference on Friday night with a 7 p.m. game against Saint Francis. The Lions are looking to avenge a five-set loss last year to the Red Flash.

The tennis programs have three matches at the Lindenwood Tennis Courts this week. On Tuesday, the men's team has a 12 p.m. match with Maryville. Saturday, both the men's and women's teams have a MIAA match against Southwest Baptist at 1 p.m.

Student Veterans Week

Student Veterans Week begins Saturday, March 17. The week will feature a series of veteran events sponsored by student-veteran groups at universities around the region. Please see the flier for more information.

Karraker Nominated for Award

Dr. Holly Karraker, Associate Professor of Counseling, has been nominated for the Adam Morgan Foundation's Higher Education Mentor Award. The mission of the foundation is to provide resources, equipment and interventions to families raising children with Autism Spectrum Disorders, ages three and up, at little to no cost.

The winners of the foundation awards are selected by a public vote. If you would like to support Dr. Karraker for this award, please follow the link below. The Mentor category is item 2. You do not have to vote in any other category to submit a ballot. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/HQD6WWN>.

Collegiate DECA Team from Lindenwood Receives State Honors

Collegiate DECA team members from the Plaster School of Business & Entrepreneurship at Lindenwood University participated in the annual state conference for the Missouri Collegiate Association of DECA on February 22 and 23 at the Lodge of Four Seasons, Lake Ozark. Over 140 college members – a total of 12 colleges and universities – were in attendance to compete in 25 competitive events involving individual case studies, team case studies and prepared presentations. Faculty Judges Needed for Student Research Conference – We Need You!

It is that time of the year again, where we ask faculty and staff to participate and volunteer with the Student Research Conference. If you are interested in volunteering to be a judge for student projects and presentations at this year's Student Research Conference, please fill out this form to let us know when you are available.

We will contact judges after March 20 with further information and judging assignments. The Student Research Conference is Wednesday, April 18, from noon-6:30 p.m. in the Spellmann Center. Please put the Student Research Conference on your to-do list. We would really appreciate it. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact SRC@lindenwood.edu
