PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

Campus Welcomes Open House Visitors

The Admission's Office will sponsor an Open House for prospective day students on Saturday, January 28. As the fourth event of its type in this academic year, the Open House will begin in McCluer Hall, 2nd Floor Lounge at 9:00 a.m., featuring brief talks by various members of the campus community. Admissions procedures, financial aid and Lindenwood's history will be some of the presented topics. The popular student question-and-answer panel will follow.

At 10:45 a.m., there will be a "College Fair" held with faculty in the Latzer Great Hall at the Memorial Arts Building. A series of tours by the LTO (Lindenwood Tour Guide Organization) will leave the Memorial Arts Building at 11:30 a.m., winding up in Ayres Cafeteria by 12:15 p.m. to end the day with lunch.

Persons interested in participating in the Open House or in joining LTO are asked to contact Chris Campbell at Ext. 215. (Submitted by Chris Campbell, Admissions.)

Babcock Center Plans Personnel Managers Group

The Babcock Center for the Study of Management and Communication is initiating the development of a St. Charles Personnel Managers discussion group.

The suggestion to organize the group came from Don Otto, director of human resources at Monsanto in St. Peters. He expressed a desire to see the personnel managers of St. Charles come together on a regular basis to share ideas and information with peers.

The Babcock Center plans to host a preliminary meeting on January 31. If you wish further information, please call the Babcock Center, extension 440. (Submitted by Nancy Webster, Babcock Center.)

Faculty Summer Teaching Opportunities, Missouri Scholars Academy, June 11 to July 1, 1989

The Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education is seeking creative and capable faculty members to work with three hundred of the state's most gifted secondary students at the Missouri Scholars Academy, University of Missouri-Columbia. For application forms and additional information, please contact Wilda Swift, 113 Cobbs Hall or Bob Roach, Director, Gifted Education Programs, Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, 314/751-2453. (Submitted by Wilda Swift, Assistant to the Dean of Faculty.)

SBDC Announces State-Wide Contest

This marks the second year for the Missouri Collegiate Entrepreneur of the Year Award. A state-wide contest will determine the collegiate entrepreneur displaying the most creativity in a business venture while maintaining a full-time student status.

Each local Small Business Development Center (SBDC) will choose an area winner from applications submitted. The winner will compete for the state honor. Last year's winner, Leilana Faber, was a student at Southwest Missouri State. Her company, Collegiate Cuts, took beauty salon services to the customer in their home or dorm.

To learn more about the contest, call the state SBDC Office in St. Louis at (314) 534-7204 or your local SBDC Center.

Admissions Sponsors Phonathon

Lindenwood's Day Admissions Office is sponsoring a one-day "phonathon" on Sunday, January 29 from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Callers will contact prospective students, primarily high school seniors, to determine their interest in Lindenwood and encourage them to apply for admission.

Interested faculty, staff and students are invited to join the day admissions team to help with this important phone effort. The calls are easy and actually a lot of fun. If you are interested in helping, please call Peter Pitts at Ext. 212 for more details. (Submitted by Peter Pitts, Day Admissions.)

GRAND PLAZA BOWLING LEAGUES FORMING NOW!

Lindenwood will have a Thursday Night League, every week at 9:30 p.m. Teams will consist of four players at a cost of $3.25 per week. Six teams are needed to launch the league, so call Jane Mathews, Ext. 399, and sign up today. For more information call Jane--all levels of bowling experience are welcomed to join in the fun. And remember to make plans now for the FREE BOWLING NIGHT on January 26. (Submitted by Jane Mathews.)

"Gateway To Careers" Offers Exciting Job Opportunities

The third annual St. Louis "Gateway to Careers" Job Fair will be held Friday, March 10, 9:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m. at Maryville College. The Job Fair will provide an excellent opportunity for students to meet with a variety of employers. To be eligible for the fair, participants must:

-Have completed or will complete associate or bachelor degrees between May 1988 and August 1989. (Masters degrees are acceptable, but the fair is intended primarily for undergraduates.)

-Be seeking entry level jobs.

-By Friday, February 17, 1989, submit a completed, four-part registration form to the CAP Center.

-Pay a $5.00 registration fee. ONLY CHECKS OR MONEY ORDERS will be accepted. (Make checks payable to Maryville College.)

-Attend a Resume Writing/Interviewing Skills Workshop or schedule an individual appointment with Debbie Coats (CAP Center, Ext. 307.)

-Submit three copies of your resume to Debbie Coats.

Those who do not register by February 17 will not be admitted to the Fair until 10 a.m., and must pay a $10.00 late fee. (Submitted by Debbie Coats, CAP Center.)

Attention all clubs, groups and teams! The yearbook staff would like to snap those group pictures for this year's Linden Leaves yearbook. If you are interested, please contact Linden Leaves Editor Darren Totten at Campus Box 538 and state when and where your group will meet for their photo. Also, be sure to include a contact name and phone or campus box number for your group, so that arrangements can be made for your group photo. The yearbook's deadline for group photos is February 20. Make sure your group is included by dropping a line to Darren today. (Submitted by Darren Totten, Linden Leaves.)

Corrections to January 17 "Communique"

Dr. C. Edward Balog has been on the Lindenwood faculty for 15 years, not 26 years as previously reported.

Dr. Allen Schwab is currently the Dean of the Undergraduate College, not the Dean of College Life as previously reported.

Our apologies for the misinformation and misnomer.

"Communique" is a publication of the Lindenwood College Office of Public Relations. Issued weekly throughout the academic year, we welcome your copy, suggestions and story ideas. Deadlines: Copy must be in Campus Box 652 by 3 p.m. on Thursdays or hand-delivered to Memorial Arts Building Room by 5 p.m. on Thursdays. Please include the name of the person submitting copy. Send all copy to Phyllis Morris, director of public relations. Thank you!
