Becker to Present "The FBI in Latin America" on March 27

The History and Geography department presents "The FBI in Latin America" as presented by Dr. Marc Becker, professor of history at Truman State University, March 27 from 4-5 p.m. in Dunseth Auditorium at Harmon Hall.

Becker is the Latin American historian at Truman State University. He has traveled extensively throughout Latin America and the Caribbean, and his research has been funded by the Fulbright Program, the Social Science Research Council, the American Historical Association among others. He has written or edited eleven books in English and two in Spanish. His most recent book, The FBI in Latin America (Duke University Press, 2017) examines the FBI's role in Ecuador in the 1940s when it used World War II-era anti-fascism to prevent the spread of communism after 1943. It serves as a window into U.S. foreign policy and the political left in Ecuador and Latin America more broadly.

Student Research Conference 2018 Open for Student Submissions

The Student Research Conference is a forum for students to display their scholarly and creative projects to Lindenwood students and faculty. The fifth annual conference will take place on Wednesday, April 18, 2018. Students will display work in poster formats or as presentations in concurrent sessions or panel sessions. Students can access the Student Submission form through March 20 on the Student Information page. Contact SRC@lindnewood.edu for questions or concerns.

Student Research Conference Presentation Workshop

Elizabeth Fleitz will present a webinar on Thursday, March 29 from 1-2 p.m. for students who will present at the 2018 Student Research Conference. She will provide students with the judging rubric, explain the judging process, and give advice about how to present an award-winning SRC presentation. We will post a recording of the webinar to the Student Research Website for those unable to attend.

Faculty Judges Needed for Student Research Conference - We Need You!

It is that time of the year again, where we ask faculty and staff to participate and volunteer with the Student Research Conference. If you are interested in volunteering to be a judge for student projects and presentations at this year's Student Research Conference, please fill out this form to let us know when you are available.

We will contact judges after March 20 with further information and judging assignments. The Student Research Conference is Wednesday, April 18, from noon-6:30 p.m. in The Spellmann Center. Please put the Student Research Conference on your to-do list. We would really appreciate it.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact SRC@lindenwood.edu.
