Today's Headlines

Residential Life Hosts First Lindenwood Yard Sale

The Lindenwood Residential Life Office will host its inaugural yard sale and donation drive on Saturday, April 28, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Welcome Center parking lot.

Students, faculty, and staff are invited to sell their surplus belongings to the surrounding community and their peers. In addition, we will be accepting donations in support of local charity We Love St. Charles. This event is open to the public! Read more

Shotgun Sports Team Edges Texas A & M for 15th Straight National Title

The shotgun sports team trailed Texas A & M by one target with just American Skeet remaining for both squads, but Lindenwood outshot the Aggies by four in the final event on Saturday to claim the 15th straight title for the program at the ACUI Collegiate Clay Target National Championships at the National Shooting Complex in San Antonio, Texas. The Lions finished with an overall score of 2,492 compared to Texas A & M with 2,489. It was the smallest margin of victory for Lindenwood in any of its national championships. Read more

Synchronized Swimming Captures Fourth Straight U.S. National Title

Synchronized swimming captured its fourth consecutive U.S. Senior National high point championship April 1 at the Oro Valley Aquatic Center near Tucson, Arizona. Despite the 70-point margin over the nearest club, the outcome was much closer than the score indicated, thanks to a couple of familiar faces. Read more

Fans and Supporters Asked to Vote for Lindenwood Women's Rugby Player

Women's rugby player McKenzie Hawkins has been nominated for the Sorensen Award for the 2017-18 season.

The junior center from Maryville, Tennessee is among 11 nominees for the honor, which is named after M.A. Sorensen, a former American college rugby athlete and World Cup winner. The award was first given during the 2015-16 season. Hope Rogers of Penn State won the first year and Ilona Maher from Quinnipiac won last season. Read more

Langenberg Speaker Series featuring Drs. Frank, Murray

Dr. Robert H. Frank and Dr. Charles Murray, two people who have written extensively on the subject of the American Dream, and will discuss "Culture and Opportunity in America" May 8 at the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts. Doors will open at 6 p.m. and the program will begin at 6:30 p.m. with a book signing immediately following. General admission seating is $10 and is first come, first served; Lindenwood students will be admitted FREE w/ student ID.

Open access to success is at the heart of the American Dream. The suburban house and shiny SUV will age and become obsolete. Opportunity, however, is an inheritance we can be proud to pass on to our children. Understanding how American culture influences opportunity is a subject of existential importance.

Master of ceremonies for the event is Marc Cox, host of "The Marc Cox Show" on FM NewsTalk 97.1. Moderator for the Q&A session is Bill McClellan, columnist for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
