PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

WalkAmerica Comes To Lindenwood

WalkAmerica, the nation's largest walking event is held annually by the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation on the last weekend in April. On Saturday, April 29, more than 600,000 walkers are expected to participate in WalkAmerica nationwide.

In the St. Louis metropolitan area an estimated 8,000 walkers will take to the streets to help in the fight against birth defects which affect one out of every 14 babies born in the United States.

Lindenwood College Circle K is very proud to be a part of WalkAmerica. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to join our winning team and recruit family and friends to become involved also. For information contact our team captains: Pam Allen, Ext. 294; Jannett Crook, Ext. 374; or Kenton Kolker, Ext. 337. (Submitted by Pam Allen, Applied Mass Comm Student.)

Valuation Institute at Lindenwood Offers Real Estate Studies

Beginning April 6, studies in real estate will be offered during the 1989 Spring Quarter for the International Valuation Sciences Institute at Lindenwood. Registration is currently underway for these courses, which will be available through the college's LCIE Program.

Major focuses of the studies will include the business of real estate, real estate law and real estate finance. Topics in the courses will deal with the real estate industry, development, transactions, management, regulation and government, property rights, ownership types, zoning and ordinances, conveyances, investment, feasibility studies, financial markets, valuation and project planning.

Virgil O'Connor, J.D., will teach the studies. Dr. O'Connor is a lawyer with extensive experience in real estate analysis, law and finance, and real estate teaching. He has been teaching real estate finance in the MBA Program at Lindenwood.

For more information, contact Marsha Parker, director of evening and corporate admissions, at 949-2000, Ext. 362. (Submitted by Richard Rickert, Valuation Sciences.)

Lenten Lunch Features Guest Speaker Michael Castro

The Lenten Lunch Series, "How My Mind Has Changed," resumes this week with a presentation by Dr. Michael Castro on Wednesday, March 22 from noon to 1 p.m. in the Legacy Room of Ayres Cafeteria. Dr. Castro is an associate professor and director of LCIE's Communications and General Education Programs. He is also an LCIE faculty advisor.

All faculty, staff and students are welcome to attend. The Lunch Series is sponsored by the Reverend George Wilcox and Father John Schneider of the Chaplain's Office. (George Wilcox, Chaplain's Office.)

Annual Honors Convocation Set For April 23

Join the Lindenwood Community in honoring student achievements at the annual Honors Convocation on Sunday, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre.

Students who have served as campus leaders, have achieved departmental honors, have been named to honor societies, or whose academic achievements have been particularly outstanding during the 1988-89 academic year will be honored during this important recognition event. (Submitted by Allen Schwab, Dean of the Undergraduate College.)

SOS Still Seeking Students

The Orientation Committee is still seeking interested students to be Student Orientation Services (SOS) Leaders for the August 1989 New Student Orientation. These leaders are needed to assist with check-in, accompanying assigned groups of students to scheduled activities and events, being available for student questions/concerns and making follow-up contacts with individual students throughout the first semester.

Applications are available in the CAP Center. If you have any questions regarding the SOS Program, please call Kathy Quinn, Ext. 222. The application deadline is this coming Friday, March 24. (Submitted by Kathy Quinn, College Life.)
