PEOPLE, NEWS & NOTES

Directors Appoint Spellmann

The Lindenwood College Board of Directors has appointed Dennis Spellmann to the position of executive vice president and chief operating officer of Lindenwood College effective immediately. In this position, Mr. Spellmann will have primary responsibility for the internal operations of the college. Dr. Daniel N. Keck will continue as interim president and chief executive officer. Mr. Spellmann can be contacted through Judy Shanahan in the President's Office. (From the Office of the President.)

Campbell Bids Fond Farewells

Chris Campbell, admissions associate and Lindenwood's "prodigal son," leaves the college March 31 after five and one-half years as a student and staff member. Campbell will challenge the bug that forever bites him, accepting positions as assistant to the managing director and company house manager of Stages Production Company in Kirkwood, Mo.

The summer theatre position takes Chris through August 1989, at which time he will relocate to Los Angeles in pursuit of his own career in arts and entertainment. Said Campbell, "I'm currently high on the theory, 'you never know until you try.' This has been an 18-year struggle for me. Now it's time to do something." L.A.-based friends have offered a temporary job and home. Campbell is also excited to be acting again after 10 months in the production, "University," at UMSL (April 21-23).

Chris would like to thank his Lindenwood family for their support and friendship, and especially Peter Pitts, Jim Thompson, Dan Keck and James Spainhower for providing him with opportunities he said he wouldn't have otherwise experienced. (Submitted by Chris Campbell, Admissions.)
