Evenings of Chinese-Style Dance and Theatre

Lindenwood College is presenting a three-part program of Chinese drama and dance on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 28 and 29. The program includes a traditional Chinese drama, "The Phoenix Hairpin," which has been adapted and translated by Shaw Yi-Chin; traditional Chinese dances, choreographed by Liu Li-Ying; and modern dance, choreographed by Hsieh Mei-Shih. The performance will take place in Jelkyl Theatre April 28 and 29 at 8:00 p.m. Following the performance, there will be a reception in the president's home on campus.

The director and choreographers are all professors at the National Taiwan Academy of Arts in Taipei, Taiwan. They are graduate students in performing arts at Lindenwood. The cast of "The Phoenix Hairpin" includes Susan Crain, Jim Freund, Anne Wiley, Brian Wilson and Tracey Zerwig. The dancers are Wendy Brotherlin, Debbie Buchanan, Jennifer Demorlis, Tina Fisher, Merry Fissehazion, Netsa Fissehazion, Hsieh Mei-Shih, Carole Justice, Liu Li-Ying, Akira Maruyama, Jill Miller, Tim Richey, Barb Samuels, Joan Sandretto, Toshiaki Suzuki, Brian Wilson and Tracey Zerwig.

Tickets may be reserved by calling the box office at 946-2004, weekdays between 1 and 5 p.m., one hour before performances or from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on April 29.

General admission is $8 for adults, $6 for Senior Citizens and students, and $2 for Lindenwood students. Group rates also are available. (Submitted by Wilda Swift.)

Scholarship Available for Special Education Studies

Information concerning a scholarship offered by the St. Charles County Association for Retarded Citizens is now available at the Financial Aid Office.

The Mary Jo Cobb Scholarship was established in 1988 with the first recipient being a student from the University of Missouri, Columbia. It was Cobb's desire that this scholarship enable a student pursuing a degree in Special Education and in need of financial assistance to be helped in his or her pursuit of this educational goal.

Application deadline is June 1, 1989. (Submitted by Debbi DeJohn, Financial Aid.)

CAP Center and Career Club Host Career Day

On Tuesday, April 4 the CAP Center and Career Club will host a Career Day in the Heritage Room, Ayres Cafeteria, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Alumni from a variety of professional fields will be available to talk informally with students. They will answer questions about their jobs in particular and their careers in general. Juniors and seniors may be especially interested in this opportunity to network with employers, but all students are encouraged to participate. For more information, contact Debbie Coats in the CAP Center, Ext. 307.

Annual Honors Convocation Set For April 23

Join the Lindenwood Community in honoring student achievements at the annual Honors Convocation on Sunday, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre.

Students who have served as campus leaders, have achieved departmental honors, have been named to honor societies, or whose academic achievements have been particularly outstanding during the 1988-89 academic year will be honored during this important recognition event.
