Manjounes Featured on Podcast

The [podcast 501 \[c\]rossroads](#) speaks with Dr. Cindy Manjounes from Lindenwood University-Belleville on how to choose the right educational program for professionals in the non-profit sector. The podcast episode is called "Tips for Higher Education Selection for Nonprofit Leaders with Cindy Manjounes." A description of the podcast is below:

Finishing a bachelors, taking on a masters, or going for that doctorate can be a daunting use of a nonprofit professional's time and money.

Dr. Cindy K. Manjounes knows... she has two doctorates!

Marjorie and Natalie talk to Dr. Cindy about how to choose the right school and program for you, your future, and your organization, ways to pay for it, selling it to a nonprofit board, and take a look at the long term ROI of getting to the next level.

HLC Fact of the Week: "Are You Familiar with Lindenwood's ILOs?"

Lindenwood's Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs), approved in May 2016, are referenced frequently in the Assurance Argument being prepared for submission to HLC on October 9, 2017. If you are not familiar with the ILOs, you can learn more here and here. There are four ILOs: Read more

Faculty Workshop Week Schedule Now Available

Workshop Week for faculty at the St. Charles campus happens from Aug. 21-25. The schedule of events is now available.

Updates to the Employee Guidebook

Some additions and alternations have been made to the Employee Guidebook:

- The curriculum change process on page 78 has been replaced by a new expanded appendix, which begins on page 146.

The updated version of the Employee Guidebook can be found under "Useful Links" and "Guidebooks."

“First-Year Experience” Now Known as “Welcome to the Pride”

The Office of First-Year Programs on the St. Charles campus is excited to announce the name change of the new student orientation program that was known as “First Year Experience (FYE)” to “Welcome to the Pride!”

“Welcome to the Pride” still occurs the Wednesday – Sunday in August prior to the first day of classes. It will continue to offer programs designed to orient new students (freshmen and transfer) to the Lindenwood community. The name change allows us to better market our office, while instilling a sense of community amongst incoming Lindenwood classes.

We would also like to announce the hashtag for the event as #LindenLionPride. Any questions regarding “Welcome to the Pride” can be directed to Sarah Tetley at 636-949-4627. A schedule of events and more detailed information can be found by visiting the website.

Volunteers Needed for “Book Brigade” Event Aug. 24

The Lindenwood University Library is searching for volunteers for their “Book Brigade” on Aug. 24. Volunteers will pass 50 books from the steps of the Butler Library and conclude at the Library and Academic Resource Center doors, “bucket brigade” style. The brigade will celebrate the conclusion of moving the book collection.

To cover the distance between the buildings, approximately 350-400 volunteers are needed.

The brigade is scheduled to last for approximately 15 minutes. Check-in will be at 12:30 p.m. with the brigade beginning at 12:45 p.m., finishing around 1 p.m. for refreshments and a chance to see the new building.

A web page has been created to register volunteers.

Library Services Transition Coming Soon

Faculty, if you need items on course reserve for the first week of classes, please contact Chris Smentkowski, Circulation Coordinator for Library Services, csmentkowski@lindenwood.edu. We recommend placing items on course reserve as soon as possible to prepare for the building transition. Library Services will operate out of Butler Library until further notice. Thank you!
