People, News & Notes

Summer Quarter Deadlines

Deadlines are coming up for day students who plan to attend the summer interim quarter at Lindenwood. June 8th is the last day to register without paying a late fee. Classes start June 10th and run through August 4th. LCIE and Evening students have until July 6th to register without a late fee for their summer quarter classes. That quarter begins Saturday, July 8th with opening weekend. Evening college courses start the following Monday, July 10th. If you're planning to graduate at the end of the summer quarter, you have until August 4th to apply. Graduation is September 30th. For more information on registering for the interim quarter, contact Sheryl Mack, Director of Admissions, at extension 212. Adult and evening students can call Marsha Parker, Director of the Evening and Corporate Programs at extension 362.

Communique Change

You'll be seeing your favorite newsletter a little less often this summer. Communique will be coming out every other week. If you have any information you'd like to share with the rest of the campus, drop off the written copy at the Public Relations office or Campus Box 652. Please give your name and a phone number to contact for questions. The information should be in by 3 p.m. the Thursday before the newsletter is printed.

LCIE Sponsors Baseball Night

Students, faculty, staff, alumni and other friends are invited to join the Lindenwood College for Individualized Education (LCIE) as the group heads for a night of baseball at Busch Stadium on Monday, June 26. Tickets are a bargain at $8.00 per person, and the fun is free and unlimited. For reserved seats to this Cards vs. Phillies game, bring your ticket money to Bob Sullentrup, LCIE professor, at the LCIE/Evening College Office in Roemer Hall, Room 108. (Submitted by Bob Sullentrup, LCIE.)

Future Student?

Public Relations Director Phyllis Morris is the mother of a brand-new baby girl, Kate Elizabeth. Kate joined the Morris family Saturday, May 20. She weighed in at 6 lbs., 9 oz. Congratulations to Phyllis, Chris, and big sister Jane.

Fulbright Scholar Program

The Council for International Exchange of Scholars is opening its 1990-1991 competition for overseas research and lecturing opportunities for American students. There are approximately 1000 Fulbright awards available each year for Americans to conduct research or to lecture at universities in more than 100 countries.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. United States Citizenship.
  2. For lecturing (in most cases): postdoctoral college or university teaching experience at the level and in the field of the lectureship sought.
  3. For research: a doctorate or comparable professional qualifications.
  4. In some cases, proficiency in a foreign language.
- Application deadlines are from June 15, 1989 to January 1, 1990, depending on the country. For more information and applications, write or call:

CIES Office of Academic Liaison
3400 International Drive, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008-3097
(202) 686-7866.

Mrs. Sibley's Sale Needs Books

Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale needs book donations for its annual craft, antique and flea market on June 3. The benefits from the St. Charles alumni efforts on this sale will go towards a student scholarship at Lindenwood. If you have any old books to donate, please notify the college's Security Office in advance at 949-2000, Ext. 255. For more information, call Judy Peters at Ext. 389. (Submitted by Virginia Terry, St. Charles Alumni Club.)

Art Show

Attention all artists: You are invited to participate in the Oak Leaf Contemporary Art Juried Show June 4th through the 30th. The show is being held at St. Peters City Hall. It is open to both amateur and professional artists living in St. Charles County. There will be cash awards and purchase prizes. The art show is being sponsored by the Oak Leaf Artist Guild and is partially funded by the Missouri Arts Council through the St. Charles County Arts Council. For more information call 441-3622 or 723-4090.

Baue Memorial Dinner A Success

The first David C. Baue Memorial Dinner was very successful, according to Acting Director of Development Susan Rudolph. The dinner was held at The Columns May 4th. Ninety-four people attended, including Jill Baue, wife of the late David Baue, and their daughter and son-in-law Lisa and Mike Devaney. All proceeds will go to support the David C. Baue Memorial/St. Charles Jaycees Scholarship at Lindenwood. The annual award was established to assist a Lindenwood student who excels in academic achievement and community service, and who has a desire to complete their education at the college. Junior Kristen Greiwe of St. Charles is this year's scholarship winner. The dinner is the first of three that will be held over the next three years to benefit the scholarship. The dinners honor the late David C. Baue, who was a member of the Lindenwood College Board of Overseers and a St. Charles Community leader. Members from the St. Charles Jaycees host the events.

New Tennis Coach

A member of the Lindenwood staff will be taking on some extra duties next year. Kathy Quinn will be the coach for the men's and women's tennis teams at Lindenwood College. Quinn is currently the Assistant Dean of College Life for Programs and Residences. Quinn was a former head coach of the men's and women's tennis teams at Maryville College in St. Louis. She was a tennis professional at the Forest Lake Tennis Club, and she's given private tennis lessons for the past several years. Besides being on the staff here for three years, Quinn has her MBA from Lindenwood. If you're interested in playing on the college tennis team, or if you know someone who is, contact Kathy at Ext. 222.

Corbett Speaks

Lindenwood alumni, faculty and staff gathered at The Stouffer Concourse Hotel for a Noon-Day Luncheon May 18th. Board of Directors member Hal Corbett gave the noontime talk on "Economic Development in the Environment: Things Have Never Been Better, But Why is the Sky Falling?" Corbett is the Senior Vice President of Environment, Safety and Health for Monsanto Company. Lindenwood Interim President Dr. Daniel Keck and Alumni Board Member Mike Wood presided over the luncheon. The Noon-Day Luncheons are a networking session for Lindenwood student alumni. Faculty and staff are invited to attend, and guests are welcome. For more information, contact Judy Peters at the Lindenwood Alumni Office, Ext. 389.
