McMaken Essay Published

Travis McMaken. Associate Professor of Religion and Chair of Interdisciplinary Studies, recently published an essay in a well-known religious website. Titled "Christianity and Nuclear War: Helmut Gollwitzer's Response to Donald Trump and Robert Jeffress," the essay argues that the 20th Century German theologian Helmut Gollwitzer clearly demonstrated that nuclear warfare is antithetical to the Christian faith.

HLC Fact of the Week: "HLC Assurance Argument: Criterion 2 on Integrity"

Core Component 2A in our Assurance Argument addresses the following: "The institution operates with integrity in its financial, academic, personnel, and auxiliary functions; it establishes and follows policies and processes for fair and ethical behavior on the part of its governing board, administration, faculty, and staff." With regard to the matter of "fair and ethical policies", a number of policies are referenced in the Assurance Argument. Those policies and pertinent documents include: Read more

Ozark School District MA Program Graduates

Dr. Joyce Pivaler, dean of the Lindenwood University School of Education, and Director of Extended Sites Christine Lindquist attended the graduation of the Ozark School District Master of Arts program in Ozark, Mo. on Aug. 9. Teachers from Ozark School District earn college credit from Lindenwood as part of a special program.

The MA program was designed specifically to address the instructional needs of the Ozark School District and is only available to district educators. Ozark School District pays for a cohort of 20 teachers to participate in the program. District teachers must apply and be accepted to both the district cohort and Lindenwood University. Classes are taught by district educators to ensure consistency and continuity with the district's mission and goals. Graduates of the program then become teachers of teachers, presenting at professional development days and building faculty meetings.

Volunteers Needed for “Book Brigade” Event Aug. 24

The Lindenwood University Library is searching for volunteers for their “Book Brigade” on Aug. 24. Volunteers will pass 50 books from the steps of the Butler Library and conclude at the Library and Academic Resource Center doors, “bucket brigade” style. The brigade will celebrate the conclusion of moving the book collection.

To cover the distance between the buildings, approximately 350-400 volunteers are needed.

The brigade is scheduled to last for approximately 15 minutes. Check-in will be at 12:30 p.m. with the brigade beginning at 12:45 p.m., finishing around 1 p.m. for refreshments and a chance to see the new building.

A web page has been created to register volunteers.

Library Services Transition Coming Soon

Faculty, if you need items on course reserve for the first week of classes, please contact Chris Smentkowski, Circulation Coordinator for Library Services, csmentkowski@lindenwood.edu. We recommend placing items on course reserve as soon as possible to prepare for the building transition. Library Services will operate out of Butler Library until further notice. Thank you!

A graphic with a black background and a gold diagonal stripe on the right side. The text is in white and gold.
