RESPONSIBILITY

There's always a lot of talk about responsibility — in business, in governmental affairs, in family life.

Above all, your primary responsibility is to yourself and your loved ones. To get the most out of life. To provide the things you want. Responsibility to plan for your future.

At Home Federal, our responsibility is to our customers. When you're saving for college, or a new car. When you want to buy a home. When you want to invest in tomorrow's promise. We will help you achieve your goals.

The Home Folks invite you to discuss your plans with us. See how our responsibility to you helps fulfill your responsibility to yourself.

Dear Friends of Lindenwood Theatre:

We have scheduled our first Theatre Department Academy Awards Banquet and Ceremony! The evening will become an annual event and we would like you to share the fun with us. We intend to honor our student performers with awards for Best Actor and Actress, a few other serious awards, and a great many not-so-serious lampoons. There will also be skits and take-offs on the various shows offered during the past season.

To prime ourselves for this outrageous ceremony we have decided to have dinner and see the musical I DO! I DO! at Noah's Ark Dinner Theatre, then hold the ceremonies on the stage immediately following the performance. A limited number of tickets are available for friends of the theatre who would like to have dinner, see the show, and enjoy the awards ceremony. The date is Sunday, May 18, beginning at 5:00pm. Please call Pam Ross in the Theatre Office for specific information and to make reservations - 946-6912 x 342 or 218.

Won't you join us for a great evening!

Wesley Van Tassel
Chairman, Theatre Arts
