

COMMUNIQUE

March 29, 1993
Volume 168, No. 3

☛ What's Happening...

- Spring quarter LCIE classes begin Saturday, April 3rd. MBA classes start Monday evening, April 5th. If you have a friend or relative who's still thinking about going back to school, it's not too late to sign up for classes! Call Graduate and Adult Professional Admissions at 949-4933.

- Appearing at the Harry D. Hendren Art Gallery April 2-25: "Saunders Schulz: Paintings, Drawings and Three-Dimensional Objects," and "Joan Schulz: Photographic Compositions." Reception: Sunday, April 2, from 2:00-4:00 p.m.

- The first Mainstage dance concert in years, DANCE ALIVE: A Dance Concert, will take place April 15-17 and 22-24 in Jelkyl Theatre. The Lindenwood College Dancers and dance program faculty members Alice Bloch and Kate Cleary will perform modern and jazz dances. Bloch, Cleary, and three LC students choreographed the numbers. Remember, LC faculty and staff may have two free tickets. Performances start at 8 p.m.

Promotional Provost

Arlene Taich, provost, was featured in the March 24 issue of The Riverfront Times. The article, which appeared in the RFT's continuing ed section, focused on non-traditional educational programs for adults. The opening line is a grabber! If you missed the issue, stop by the PR office to take a look. It's great publicity for our College and our programs.

Billboard Success

The new billboard at Highway 70 (eastbound) and Zumbuhl Road is now finished and lookin' good! Based on the "Lindenwood College -- your license to success" theme, the sign features a huge license plate with the 949-2000 number. Take a look!

L.A. Stories

A hearty pat on the back to John Tieman, adjunct faculty member in the LCIE communications program. John's Memorial Day essay, "Blessed Are They Who Mourn" will be featured in the Los Angeles Times in May. Keep your eyes open for John's by-line in local newspapers and magazines as well!

Garçon!

President Dennis Spellmann is moonlighting -- for one day at least. He is one of 21 community leaders selected for the "Stars At Your Service" breakfast and auction on April 1, to raise money for the American Diabetes Association. The president will wait on a table of special guests, some of whom include LC board members. His mission: to entertain, solicit tips and donations, and serve a delicious meal to a group of hungry community leaders.

Lenten Lectures

Two more presentations are left in the 1993 Lenten Lectures Series. The theme of this year's lectures is A Prophetic Voice: Where Is The World Going?

The remaining lecture dates and guest speakers are:

March 30 C. Edward Balog, Ph.D.
LC professor of history

April 6 The Reverend Julia Allen Berger
Oncology Chaplain, Barnes Hospital, Washington University Medical Center; Pastoral Counselor.

The lectures are held at 7:30 p.m. in the Heritage Room of Ayres Dining Hall. A reception will follow each presentation. Admission is free.

Deja Vu

The Campus Life Office will present the movie version of George Orwell's "1984" on Sunday, April 4, Monday, April 5 and Tuesday, April 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Young Auditorium. Admission is free.

Musical Notes

* Wish Bob Carter and his music students "bonne chance" as they perform at Alton High School Tuesday night, March 30. The Lindenwood Quintet, which also features LCIE professor Susan Dunton, is performing pieces by Beethoven, Barthe and Joplin. The Saxophone Quartet follows, presenting selections by Purcell, Morley, Wilbye, and Dubois.

* The Music Department presents "A Little Noon Music" Thursday, April 1 (no foolin!) at 12:20 p.m. in the St. Charles Presbyterian Church. Admission is free.

* The Lindenwood College Jazz Band will perform Sunday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre, and the Symphonic Band is holding its spring concert Sunday, May 9. Same bat time, same bat place.

* The Lindenwood Choir, under the direction of Terry Martin, will perform at Worlds of Fun in Kansas City on April 4, and at a senior center April 3rd. The events were booked by a Lindenwood alum.

Fall Registration

Pre-registration for the Fall Semester starts Monday, April 5. Seniors register Monday, juniors on Tuesday, sophomores Wednesday and freshmen Thursday.

New Student Registration

Speaking of registration, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions is holding the first Open House/Registration Day for the Fall 1993 semester on Friday, April 16. Faculty members, student life representatives and financial aid advisors will be on hand to work with new students as they embark on their new educational ventures.

Faculty Meetings Set

The next faculty meeting dates are set for Wednesday, April 7 and Wednesday, May 5 at 3:00 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre.

Shall We Dance?

The Lindenwood College 1993 Cotillion is this Saturday, April 31, at the Holiday Inn Airport West from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. The theme for this year's spring semi-formal is Do You Believe In Magic? Tickets are $10.00 per person and include soft drinks, hor d'oeuvres and dancing. Tickets may be purchased at the Physical Plant Office in Roemer Hall.

Special Thanks...

...to faculty and staff for supporting the student Downstage production of Lysistrata, and the opening of the student art exhibits by Kelly Hamilton and Pam Cannady. .

Riverport Rumors

For your summertime entertainment pleasure, we have some of the "scoop" on artists appearing at the Riverport Amphitheatre (just a mile-and-a-half from Lindenwood!) this summer:

Sting

10,000 Maniacs

Clint Black

Wynona Judd

Lynard Skynard (they're back!)

Tim Allen (comedian, Home Improvement)

Gallagher (comedian, smashes watermelons)

We're just passing along what we heard...no info on dates, prices, etc.
