Today's Headlines

Moyich is New Title IX Coordinator

Kelly Moyich is the new Title IX coordinator at Lindenwood University. Moyich comes to Lindenwood from the Circuit Attorney's Office for the City of St. Louis, where she served as an assistant circuit attorney in the armed offender unit. Her work in that role included evaluating and prosecuting homicides, assaults, and robberies along with extensive jury trial work.

Prior to that, Moyich worked in the office of the 21st Judicial Circuit Clerk and as a public defender for the State of Missouri in the Clayton and City of St. Louis trial offices, where she handled all aspects of client representation, supervised 11 attorneys, and trained and directed new attorneys in all aspects of criminal procedure. Lindenwood University Symphony Orchestra Looking for Musicians!

The Lindenwood University Symphony Orchestra welcomes any musically-inclined students, staff, or faculty to audition for the group! We rehearse on Monday evenings from 7-9:30 p.m. in the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts, and typically perform two concerts per semester.

We're in particular need for all string instruments, oboe, bassoon, and French horn. This group is open to the public, so please share this information with friends and family – we have members that range in age from high school freshmen to retired community members. Please contact Dr. Jeffrey Barudin (jbarudin@lindenwood.edu) for more information and to schedule an audition.

Vandergraaf Places Second in Physique Competition

Vanessa Vandergraaf, an associate professor in the School of Education, recently competed in the Natural Physique Midwest Naturals Show and earned the second-place medal.

“It required following an uncompromising nutrition and training regimen for 19 weeks,” Vandergraaf said. “As with any worthwhile initiative, investing in one’s health takes grit, courage, and perseverance.” Read more

Romoero-Ghiretti to Publish with Journal

Gabriela Romero-Ghiretti, Associate Professor of Spanish and Chair of the Foreign Languages Department, was recently invited by two different academic journals to review an edited volume titled New Readings of Silvina Ocampo: Beyond Fantasy. Romero-Ghiretti chose to publish with Revista de Estudios Hispánicos, a leading Hispanic Studies academic journal founded at Washington University. The review will appear in the June 2018 issue of the journal.

Giuseffi Edits Book

Dr. Frank Giuseffi, an adjunct professor in the School of Education, recently edited "Emerging Self-Directed Learning Strategies in the Digital Age." Three Lindenwood faculty members also contributed to the book with articles: Dr. John Long, Dr. Maria Orlando, and Dr. Ronda Cypret-Mahach.

Employee Discount at Campus Dining Locations

Don't forget that Lindenwood University Staff & Faculty receive 15% off at all dining locations on campus!

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
