Off and Running

Faculty and staff members are asked to help as Lindenwood hosts the 1993 NAIA Outdoor Track & Field Championships at Principia College in Elsah, Illinois. The meet is set for Saturday, May 1, and will last from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The teams really need your help to be judges and timers for the event. You don't have to know much about track and field, the track team will teach you! For more information, contact Head Coach Gary White at ext. 4806 or Carol White at ext 4903. Thank you!

Did You See...

The St. Charles Journal on Wednesday, April 21, featured Suzanne Saum and Kit Mao for their work at the 10th annual Expanding Your Horizons in Science and Mathematics Conference. Their workshop demonstrated chemistry in the kitchen.

The St. Charles Post ran an article on Friday, April 23, about the religion courses at LC. The article featured assistant professor of religion Alan Meyers, Rev. Michael Mason and archivist Mary Ambler. The article also focused on a few LC students, past and present: sophomores Ryan Nowack and Doug Knop, and alumna Jean Gross Mudd of St. Charles.

Sue Schneider, alumna and freelance writer, was featured in the St. Charles Post on Friday, April 23. She has written a history and guidebook about St. Charles called Old St. Charles. The book will sell for $5.95 and will be available at the First State Capitol, Greater St. Charles Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and some shops on South Main Street. A reception and autograph session for Schneider will be held on May 2, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce.

To read or make copies of these articles, stop by the PR Office in room 105, Roemer Hall.

Castro Recites Poem At Inauguration

Michael Castro was one of four poets of the Word Seed Ensemble who read at the inaugural ceremonies of St. Louis Mayor Freeman Bosley, Jr. The Word Seed Ensemble presented a choral-style reading based on Castro's poem "Poet's Rap," and illustrates Bosley's campaign theme of bringing together the diverse communities of St. Louis.

Misprints Of The Griffin

Please check your Spring 1993 Griffin literary magazine for misprinted pages. If any pages are duplicated or missing, please stop by the English Department and exchange your copy for a new one. Thank you!

Sign Of Times...

Kathleen Schandl will be teaching a course in Sign Language this fall. This is the first Sign Language course at Lindenwood in a long time. The class will be held on Wednesdays, 4:30-7 p.m. in Roemer Hall room 201. The three credit course is being offered to juniors, seniors, graduate students, faculty and staff. Sign Language I is designed as an introduction to American Sign Language and other visual language modes. For more information contact Schandl at 4841.

Alum Harvard Bound

Debra Howard, a 1992 graduate of the LCIE Communications program, has been accepted into the Harvard University Graduate Teachers Education Program.

Senior Accepted To Yale Graduate School

Andrew Schmaeng, a senior art education major, has been accepted into the Yale Graduate School of Art.
