

COMMUNIQUE

May 10, 1993
Volume 168, No. 6

☛ What's Happening...

- Appearing at the Harry D. Hendren Art Gallery through May 19: "Student Art Exhibition."
- The graduate art exhibit of Sally Dielman opens Friday, May 21st at the Hendren Gallery. The reception is set for 6-8pm Friday night.
- Graduation announcements are for sale in the bookstore.

Grad Student Gives Workshop

Cindy Mayer, graduate student in the LC gerontology program, will present a workshop: "It's Never Too Late: Exercise and Aging" at the Fourth Annual St. Louis Summer Geriatric Institute. The institute, scheduled for June 15th, is sponsored by St. Louis University Medical Center and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Grad Presents Thesis Research

Jo Koehler, who completed her master's in professional counseling in December 1992, presented her master's thesis research on "Alcoholism and Aging" at the May 4th meeting of the Missouri Nurses Association Third District Gerontology Special Interest Group. Koehler is with the Center for Holistic Living, at the Center for Spirituality in the Carondelet neighborhood of St. Louis. Jo received her BSN from Washington University School of Nursing in 1953.

Did You See...

The St. Charles Journal on Wednesday, May 5, featured LC Chaplain Michael Mason and his dog Ally in a piece on greyhound adoption. Tonie Isenhour of undergraduate admissions and Kim Ausburn of ServiceMaster were also interviewed for the article.

Mahaffy Receives 2 Research Grants

Caryn Mahaffy, a junior biology major, will be taking part in an eight-week summer research program in the Department of Biological Sciences at the University of Iowa. The grant is sponsored by the Howard Hughes Medical Research Foundation. Mahaffy plans to study plant molecular genetics research this summer. She receives a stipend and room, board and travel expenses to Iowa City. Caryn was also accepted into the University of Missouri-Columbia Graduate School's Access Enhancement Program, another summer research project. Daryl Anderson, professor of biology, is Caryn's advisor.

Slaten Named To Board

Mark Slaten, adjunct faculty member in LCIE accounting and finance, was named to the Board of Directors for the Chesterfield Fire Protection District. Slaten is employed by AT & T.

Wrestle Mania

Two LC wrestlers and one coach have been selected for the NAIA All-Star Wrestling Team International Competition in Guatemala City May 27-June 10. Stacey Weiland, an admissions and wrestling grad assistant was chosen to coach, based on his experience in international competition and free-style wrestling. Jerry Neitenbach, junior, will wrestle in the 163 pound weight class and Marc Botindari, freshman, will compete at 198 pounds.

Midnight Madness

Faculty and staff members are invited to serve breakfast to LC resident students Tuesday night, May 11 from 11:30 p.m.-1:00 a.m. Come help feed the students while they take a study break.

Last Lunch

Just a reminder--the last lunch served in Ayres Dining Hall is Monday, May 17.

Baseball Standouts

Head Coach John Ward is proud to announce that 12 of his players (out of a total of 31) qualified for the Show-Me Collegiate Academic All-Conference Team this year. To qualify, the student-athlete must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 and successfully complete the season with the team. The players include Brian Barteau, Bryan Binkholder, Tim Blackstock, Richie Flores, Jarad Harper, Matthew Klasnick, Daniel McLaughlin, John Peel, Jayson Pierce, Chris Schroeder, Cory Tibbs, and Matt Wilhelm.

Three of those players, Chris Schroeder, Cory Tibbs, and John Peel were finalists as 1993 NAIA All-American Scholar-Athletes. Those students must have junior or senior standing, a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.50 and be an outstanding performer in baseball.

Selected for First Team All-District and nominated for All-American: Tony Allison, Scott Scherrer, and Cory Tibbs. Seven other players received Honorable Mention honors: Bryan Binkholder, Tim Blackstock, Eric Kestler, Tim Nihart, John Peel, Scott Penning, and Buddy Smith.

And... Bryan Binkholder was recently honored at a luncheon and banquet as the Kansas City Life NAIA District 16 Outstanding Senior Scholar Athlete in Baseball of 1992-93. Kansas City Life Insurance is contributing a $500 scholarship to LC's fund in Bryan's name.

Congratulations!

Quote Of The Week

"Sometimes the fool who rushes in gets the job done."

Al Bernstein

Baseball Playoffs

The number-three ranked Lindenwood Lions are taking on number two, Missouri Baptist in the 1993 NAIA District 16 Baseball Playoffs. The Lions take on the Spartans in Game 2, set for 2:00 pm on Thursday, May 13., at College of the Ozarks in Point Lookout, Mo. While it's unfortunate the district playoffs are taking place during our finals week, the College is working with the 22 Lions student-athletes to help them complete their academic work. Wish the Lions luck as they roar toward the championship!

Mark Your Calendars

- Wednesday, May 19
3-4:30 pm Rehearsal for Baccalaureate & Commencement
- Friday, May 21
7:30 pm Baccalaureate Services
St. Charles Presbyterian Church

8:30 pm Alumni Reception
Fine Arts Building
- Saturday, May 22
10 am Commencement Services
Quadrangle, by gazebo

12 noon Receptions
Heritage Room
LCIE, MBA & Grad Students

Front Lawn, President's House
Undergraduate Day & Evening Students

Let Us Know!

Communique is a bi-weekly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. Please submit information in writing to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913.