Today's Headlines

Anthropology Speaker Series Talks This Week

As part of our grant project through the Missouri Humanities Council, and in cooperation with the National Park Service Submerged Resources Center, the Archaeology Laboratory and Department of Anthropology is presenting several lectures associated with our underwater survey for the wreck of Far West in the Missouri River. She sank in 1883, but is best known for transporting the US Army wounded survivors from the Battle of the Little Bighorn to Fort Abraham Lincoln, near present day Mandan, North Dakota in 1876. She sank approximately five miles below St. Charles in the Missouri River. Read more

Updates to Workday

Over the weekend, Workday underwent several updates. To learn about the many new features released, please click below to see some of the videos we've created highlighting updates to worker profiles, recording absences, and the newly released Team Management Dashboard for managers. Additional updated videos and guides are located within the Useful Links and Workday Training worklets in Workday.

Useful updates to note include those made to the Pay worklet, where you can view a comparison between pay periods, a breakdown of your deductions, and the new Total Rewards Statement, which lays out your base earnings and the benefit contributions made for you by the university.

HLC Fact of the Day: “HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponent 4A4” (with specific focus on “Quality and Rigor of Academic Courses and Programs”)

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponent 4A4 says: The institution maintains and exercises authority over the prerequisites for courses, rigor of courses, expectations for student learning, access to learning resources, and faculty qualifications for all its programs, including dual credit programs. It assures that its dual credit courses or programs for high school students are equivalent in learning outcomes and levels of achievement to its higher education curriculum.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 4A4 standard, this is what we say regarding “quality and rigor of academic courses and programs”: Read more

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
