Today's Headlines

Family Day is Tomorrow!

Come join the Lindenwood community as we celebrate Family Day tomorrow,

Sept. 16! We invite your family to come share in the Lindenwood experience and see what makes being a Lion like no other! Events include a Kid's Corner, International Festival, Ice Cream Social, Football Game, and much more. For a full schedule of events, ticket details, and , hotel and travel information, please visit www.lindenwood.edu/familyDay/.

Football Hosts Washburn On Family Day This Saturday

As part of the Family Day activities on campus this Saturday, the Lindenwood football team will host Washburn in a 6 p.m. game at Hunter Stadium. The Lions dominated their home opener last week, knocking off Northeastern State by a 49-10 score. The result was the most complete performance that the program has had since moving to the NCAA level.

Lindenwood will have to repeat that performance against a Washburn squad that is 1-1 on the season. The Ichabods lost by just six points last week to No. 1 Northwest Missouri, and is currently receiving votes in the national poll.

Admission to the game is free for all Lindenwood faculty and staff.

Participants, Convertibles and Drivers Needed for 2017 Homecoming Parade

The Homecoming Committee is in need of convertibles and drivers for the Homecoming Parade taking place on Saturday, Oct. 14, from 10:30 -11:30 a.m. Please contact Nikki Cornwell at ncornwell@lindenwood.edu if you are available to provide a car, driver, or both. Convertibles will need to be able to transport two people (other than the driver). Thanks so much in advance for your help with this important event!

Saint Louis Zoo President and CEO Bonner to Speak Sept. 19

The Center for International and Global Studies welcomes Saint Louis Zoo President and CEO Dr. Jeffrey Bonner as he presents “The Saint Louis Zoo WildCare Institute: Global Conservation” Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. at Dunseth Auditorium in Harmon Hall. Admission is free and the event is open to the public.

The event is part of the International Speaker Series.

LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY
7TH ANNUAL DARK
CARNIVAL

It's that time of year again! The Lindenwood Dark Carnival is right around the corner on Oct. 25! Mark your calendar, as this will be the best year ever: more booths, more food, great music, and great prizes!

Volunteer opportunities abound-please sign up at:

<http://www.lindenwood.edu/dark-carnival/volunteer-registration/>

We would love 100% department participation and there will be winning prizes. For questions regarding volunteer opportunities please contact Cheryl Delaporta at cdelaporta@lindenwood.edu.

Ferrarini Named New Professor of Economic Education

Tawni Hunt Ferrarini, Ph.D. has joined Lindenwood University as the new

Robert W. Plaster Professor of Economic Education. She will be a member of the economics faculty in the PSB&E and a senior research fellow in the Hammond Institute. Dr. Ferrarini's appointment to Lindenwood's first named professorship was effective Aug. 17.

In addition to her duties as a PSB&E faculty member, Ferrarini's role will be to work with the School of Education to create programs at Lindenwood University for training educators to teach economics and financial literacy, and improve economics education statewide.

Most recently, Ferrarini was the Sam M. Cohodas Professor at Northern Michigan University. She is the 2015 president of the National Association of Economic Educators, the inaugural recipient of the National Association of Economic Educator's Abbejean Kehler Award, beneficiary of the 2009 Michigan Economic Educator of the Year Award, and a 2009 Distinguished Faculty at Northern Michigan University.

HLC Fact of the Day: "HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponent 4B4"
(with specific focus on "Culture of Continuous Improvement")

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponent 4B4 says: The institution's processes and methodologies to assess student learning reflect good practice, including the substantial participation of faculty and other instructional staff members.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 4B4 standard, this is what we say regarding "culture of continuous improvement":

The annual Assessment Institute in Indianapolis is one of the country's best assessment conferences, if not the best. Lindenwood faculty and staff members have attended the conference the past three years and have been presenters the past two years. Here is what the Institute says on its website: Read more

Lion's Pride Market Express Opens Sept. 18

Get ready for a brand new dining experience coming to Harmon Hall in the Fall! The Lion's Pride Market Express will be opening Sept. 18! This convenient dining facility will have a wide selection of fresh sandwiches, quick snacks, healthy options, and gourmet coffee. The Lion's Pride Market Express will accept meal plans, cash, and Dining Dollars and will be open from 7 a.m.–7 p.m. Monday–Thursday and 7 a.m.–2 p.m. on Friday. Commuters, faculty, and residents alike will love this fresh, convenient dining option.

Homecoming Court Nominations Now Open

Homecoming Court nominations are now open! Do you know a deserving Lion who goes above and beyond and truly helps make Lindenwood like no other? Nominate them to be a part of the 2017 Homecoming Court! We are now accepting nominations for Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior attendants and Senior King and Queen candidates. Nominations can be submitted through the homepage of Involve U and are due by Sept. 25 at 8 a.m. For questions, please contact Rachel Tolliver at rtolliver@lindenwood.edu.

Advisors Needed

Hello, faculty and staff! We have a couple of student organizations who are in need of an advisor.

- Circle K
- Lindenwood University Collegiate Democrats

Time commitments for advisors vary from organization to organization, but it's not typically something that is too terribly time-consuming. And working closely with our students is certainly very rewarding! If you would be interested in serving as advisor for either organization (or both), please contact Angie Royal at aroyal@lindenwood.edu.

Alumni Plaza Returns for Sept. 16 Football Game

Lindenwood alumni, faculty, staff, and friends are invited to join us at the Alumni Plaza Saturday, Sept. 16, for Lions football against the Washburn Ichabods. Kickoff is at 6 p.m.

Alumni Plaza tent admission is $6 for one or $10 for two (includes game and food), and children age 12 and under are free.

Faculty and staff with an ID card are admitted for free and charged $5 for food. The plaza is located above the Spellmann Center end zone.

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
