If you have any questions, please email LUHR@lindenwood.edu.

Alameda is Featured Lindenwell Speaker Sept. 20

Dr. Annie Alameda will be discussing common fitness and nutrition myths and how to make healthy choices for better health on Wednesday, Sept. 20 from 11:30 a.m.- 12:15 p.m. in Evans Commons 3020.

Do these statements sound familiar? "Carbs are bad!", "Fruit has sugar in it, avoid it!", or "You must exercise for 30 minutes a day to have health benefits." If you want to learn the right from the wrong when it comes to your health, then join us for this fun and informational workshop! WellBucks will be given to attendees!

Lindenwood Belleville Theatre Schedule Announced

Lindenwood University-Belleville's Department of Theatre is proud to announce its sixth season of plays.

In the fall, the department will present Tennessee Williams' classic American play, A Streetcar Named Desire, Oct. 5-8. Streetcar tells the story of Blanche DuBois and her doomed attempt at living out a fantasy life in an all-too-real 1950s New Orleans.

In the spring, the department will present Michael Frayn's hilarious, fast-paced farce Noises Off from April 12-15. Join the calamity as the cast and crew of the fictitious Nothing On try to perform their play in some ridiculous circumstances. Read more

Campbell Wins Graduate Research Award

The School of Humanities is proud to announce that Professor Tarrell Campbell, adjunct instructor of English, is this year's winner of the St. Louis University Walter J. Ong Award for Excellence in Graduate Research. The award is presented annually to a doctoral student in the English Department in recognition of exceptional research and scholarly achievement and promise. Professor Campbell will be recognized for his outstanding research at this month's Library Associates' annual dinner.

HLC Fact of the Day: "HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponents 5B2 and 5B3" (with specific focus on "faculty voice")

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponents 5B2 and 5B3 say:

5B2: The institution has and employs policies and procedures to engage its internal constituencies—including its governing board, administration, faculty, staff, and students—in the institution's governance.

5B3: Administration, faculty, staff, and students are involved in setting academic requirements, policy, and processes through effective structures for contribution and collaborative effort.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 5B2 and 5B3 standards, this is what we say regarding "faculty voice": Read more

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
