

COMMUNIQUE

October 4, 1993
Volume 168, No. 9

What's Happening...

- Faculty Meeting
Wednesday, October 6, 3:15 p.m.
- Parents Day
October 9
- Alumnae Show
October 10-30, Hendren Gallery
- A Company of Wayward Saints
October 14-16, 21-23; Jelkyl Theatre; 8 p.m.
- A Little Noon Music, Young Auditorium
October 7 & 21, 12:20 p.m.,
- Student Directed One-Acts
October 7-9, Downstage Theatre, 7:30 p.m.
- NAIA Women's National Soccer Tourney
November 22-26, St. Louis Soccer Park

Student Receives $4,000 Stipend

Gregory Roeback, a graduate student in Professional Counseling, was awarded a $4,000 stipend from the Missouri Planning Council for Developmental Disabilities. Roeback will use the stipend to aid in the completion of his thesis on respite counseling services and counselor training titled "Matching Respite Training with Family Needs."

Sports Shorts

The women's soccer team has been breaking more than their opponents lately, they recently broke a team record for the number of shutouts in a row. The Lady Lions have won seven straight shutouts including a recent 8-0 victory over neighboring Washington University last week. Head Coach Debbie Washburn and company have outscored their opponents 55-2, and are currently ranked fourth in the nation.

Lady Lion Sarah Dueker, a junior physical education major, was chosen for the College of the Ozarks All-Tournament volleyball team last month.

PHONE DIRECTORY

The 1993-94 Faculty-Staff Phone Directories will be available later this week. Thank you for your patience.

Computer Literate

Michael Henry, an LCIE student in human resource management, has written and published two books on computer programs: Working With Windows (version 3.1) and Paradox 4: A Short Course, both published in 1993 by Prentice-Hall. Word has it that both texts are illustrated and easy to use.

Stein-way

A recently published textbook features a chapter written by Michael Stein, LC assistant professor of sociology. The chapter, entitled "The Place of Sociology in a Drug Education Curriculum" appears in the textbook Drug and Alcohol Education Across the Curriculum. The book was edited by Decker, Rosenfeld and Wright, and published by R & E Publishers.

Student Publications

The campus newspaper and yearbook have merged into one area this year. The student publications are supervised by graduate student and resident director Barbara Kremer. Please direct any information to her in care of the Lindenworld. Office hours in the afternoon are 1-4 p.m. at ext. 4993 in Butler Hall room 302.

Music Notes...

Three Lindenwood music professors are scheduled to perform live at the Missouri Botanical Gardens this fall.

On October 17, adjunct professor in classical guitar John McClellan will perform with Jan Gippo in a flute and guitar duo. The two will play mountain music, among other selections.

The Metro Wind Quintet will perform on October 31. Members of the quintet are: on flute, Jennifer Adams; oboe, William Naddle; clarinet, Laura Butzlaff; french horn, Cheryl Hoard; and on bassoon Robert M. Carter. Naddle is an adjunct professor of music at LC and Carter is an assistant professor of music and the director of bands.

Both shows begin at 12 noon and will be broadcast live on Classic 99 (KFUO-FM 99.1) radio.

Professors Honored

Congratulations to Professor Don Babbitt for being selected as an Emerson Electric Excellence in Teaching Award recipient. This year's Governor's Award for Excellence in Teaching recipient is Dominic Soda. Both will be recognized at meetings later this fall.

Senior Workshop

All LCIE and traditional undergraduate seniors are invited to attend the Senior Workshops held on October 4 at 6 p.m.; October 5 at 10 a.m.; and October 7 at 6 p.m.

The workshop is designed to provide information to seniors about the Career Development Office, networking, resume writing, and finding a job after graduation. Please urge all seniors to participate in this great opportunity.

Membership Drive Is On

KCLC-FM has slated its Fall '93 Membership Drive for October 7 through October 31. Twice each year the station asks its listeners to help defray operating costs by making a tax deductible donation. This year will mark the 25th anniversary of providing public supported radio in the St. Charles and St. Louis area. Contact Glen Cerny at ext.4880 if you are interested in becoming a member.

Club Officers Announced

The Lindenwood College Education Club has elected officers for the 1993-94 school year. This year's officers are: president Bobbi Steiner, senior special education major; vice-president Michelle Orr, an elementary education major; secretary Lisa Yost, an early childhood education major; and treasurer Darrin Modde, a secondary education major.

The Education Club meets monthly and is open to all education majors.

Director of MBA Appointed

Along with his teaching duties, Jim Maxwell has been appointed as the director of the MBA program. Maxwell has already recruited five students and has contacted area businesses drumming up more recruits for the program.

Dean's List

Please announce to your students that the Spring 1993 Dean's List certificates are available in the Registrar's Office. Thank you.

"Hit The Hut" or "Run For The Border" On Campus

Pizza Hut and Taco Bell have set up carts on campus by the Undergraduate Admissions Office. The hours for the fast food delights are Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Football & Bar-B-Que

Lindenwood College Style...all home football games this year will feature a good 'ole Bar-B-Que after the game. October 9 is the next home game and will feature the Lions vs. Iowa Wesleyan with a beef and goat Bar-B-Que immediately following the Lion victory. Get ready for the annual buffalo Bar-B-Que on October 23 when the Lions play St. Xavier in a Homecoming bout. Bar-B-Que prices are $6 for adults and $4 with a football ticket stub; $3 for children (age 12 and under) and $2 with a ticket stub.

"Company" To Entertain

Please encourage your students to attend the Mainstage Theatre's first performance, A Company of Wayward Saints, which will be presented in Jelkyl Theatre on October 14-16, 21-23 at 8 p.m. NOTE: All students, faculty, and staff are entitled to two (2) free tickets. Please stop by the box office (located on the main floor of Roemer) between 1-5 p.m. Monday through Friday to reserve your tickets.

Mark Your Calendars

- October 22-24
Homecoming/Alumni Weekend
- October 22
Alumni Career Symposium,
First Session 9-11 a.m.; Second Session 2-4 p.m.

Let Us Know!

Communique is a bi-weekly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. Please submit information in writing to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913.

Quote Of The Week

"Some days you're the pigeon, some days you're the statue."

Anonymous