Congratulations!

A hearty pat on the back to Joe Bordeaux, assistant professor of education, for receiving his degree of doctor of philosophy from Saint Louis University. Great job!

Roar With The Lions!

Tune into KCLC-FM (89.9) Thursday evening, March 17, to hear the Lindenwood Lady Lions basketball team take on David Lipscomb University (Tenn.) in the first round of the NAIA National Tournament in Tennessee.

Way to Go, Wrestlers!

Three cheers for the Lions wrestling team, as they came home from nationals with a fourth place trophy! Six out of the ten men who went to Butte, Mont., for the tourney last week were named All-Americans. What a great feat for our wrestling program, which is only three years old! Congrats to Coach Stacey Weiland and the entire team!

Panel Presentation

Kent Druyvesteyn, associate professor of management, addressed "A Pathway to Excellence - A Guide to Ethical Business Conduct" in Washington, D.C. He was a member of a panel sponsored by the American Law Institute-American Bar Association and the National Center for Preventive Law.

A Reminder...

Please remember College letterhead stationery and copying services are only to be used for approved College business. Do not use letterhead stationery or envelopes to transmit personal business nor for inter-office communication. Campus copiers are only to be used for authorized College business. A coin-operated copier is available in the library for duplicating material that is not integral to College operations. Thank you for complying with this request.

Ambler Legacy

A longtime friend and supporter of Lindenwood College, Mary Ambler, passed away Wednesday morning, March 16, after a long illness. Miss Ambler, a 1930 graduate, and former LC librarian, created the College Archives in 1975 to preserve the proud past of Lindenwood. For the past 20 years, she volunteered her time and money to gather and organize Lindenwood artifacts, publications, pictures, and other historical records. She was also one of the founders of the Sibley Museum, which is now located in the Latzer Great Hall of the Memorial Arts Building. Miss Ambler received the Sibley Inner Circle Award for Service, Dedication and Foresight, and the Alumni Merit Award for Service to Lindenwood. In 1991, she was awarded an honorary doctorate. This January, the archives were officially dedicated in her honor as the Mary E. Ambler Archives. A memorial service for Miss Ambler will be held at 1 p.m., Tuesday, March 22 at 2nd Baptist Church at Clayton and McKnight.

One Nation Under ?

In reciting our nation's Pledge of Allegiance, we state that we are "One nation under God." Our coinage declares, "In God we trust." But, what place does religion have in a scientific, multi-cultural, pluralistic society? What place will religious faith and practice have in our society as we move into the 21st Century? Join Rao Ayyagari, associate professor of biology; James Hood, professor of history; Michael Mason, chaplain; Arlene Taich, provost; and John Tieman, adjunct professor of humanities, for a presentation and discussion on religion in America. The symposium/colloquium is scheduled for Wednesday, March 30, from 7-9:30 pm in Ayres Dining Hall.

Fall Semester Signup

Fall Semester registration for current students starts Monday, March 21 at 9 am. Seniors register Monday, juniors Tuesday, sophomores Wednesday, and freshmen on Thursday. An open house/registration day for new students is scheduled for Friday, March 25 from 9am-5pm in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Tuition Talk

Tuition and room and board fees are increasing 4.7% for the 1994-95 academic year. Generally, financial aid awards will be renewed so that most full-time resident students will only see a $150 increase per semester. (Individual circumstances may vary.) According to John Guffey, dean of admissions and financial aid, Lindenwood has kept increases down over the years, while still offering quality academic programs and student services at an affordable cost. Students are reminded to fill out their financial aid forms by April 15.

Career Day

Juniors, Seniors and graduate students are invited to take part in LC's first Career Day on Monday, March 21 in Butler Gymnasium. Session I is scheduled for 10 am-12:30 pm, and Session II runs from 1:15-4 pm. Representatives from companies will be available to talk with students about job and internship opportunities. Encourage your students to stop by and network (when they're not supposed to be in class, of course!)

New Honor Society

On Tuesday, 31 education students, along with education faculty members, were inducted into the newly-formed Tau Phi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi. The inaugural ceremonies and initiation of the charter members were held in Ayres Dining Hall. Professor Emeritus Gene Henderson and President Dennis Spellmann were also named honorary members. Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society which recognizes the superior academic achievement and professional promise of undergraduate and graduate students in teacher education. Membership in the society provides an opportunity for life-long fellowship with other outstanding educators and opportunities for professional growth.

Walking for Life

As we told you last Communique, Lindenwood College is the St. Charles sponsor for the 1994 March of Dimes "WalkAmerica" event. The kickoff rally was held recently at Stegton's, complete with entertainment by the Lindenwood Jazz Combo. (By the way, these guys sounded so good, we had people asking us if they were professionals and if they were available for hire!) Many people stopped by our booth to find out about LC's programs, or to thank us for taking part in the event. WalkAmerica is the largest annual fund-raiser for the March of Dimes. If anyone would like to walk, or be a team captain, stop by the PR Office, Roemer 105, for more information.

A Note from Development...

Your gift to the Athletic Complex Campaign will help build for our future and will help position the College for funding from major foundations and corporations. For more information contact Ed Watkins at ext. 4975 or Susie Pundmann at ext. 4909.

Applause, Applause

Congratulations to Russ Hunt, food service director, for winning the Marion E. Wade Award of Excellence from ServiceMaster Food Management Services. The company paid tribute to Russ and the cafeteria staff for their standards of excellence and commitment to quality food presentation. LC President Dennis Spellmann also received recognition. Cafeteria staff members were treated to a special awards ceremony and reception, which featured delicious pastries and a huge ice sculpture of Lindenwood's front gates.

Flip For Fitness

Lindenwood student-athletes, coaches, musicians, faculty and staff members took part in a news conference sponsored by the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Health, held at the new Rec-Plex in St. Peters. Cardinal Baseball Ozzie Smith was named Honorary Chairman and Official Spokesperson for the Council, and its new promotional campaign, "Flip for Fitness." As a promoter of amateur athletics, LC President Dennis Spellmann was a guest speaker, along with Governor Mel Carnahan, Smith, and St. Peters Mayor Tom Brown. LC consultant Ed Watkins emceed the news conference. Once again, the LC jazz musicians, under the direction of Bob Carter, blew everyone away with their fantastic performance. The event garnered a lot of publicity for Lindenwood student-athletes, sports, our sports complex, and of course, our music program.

Let Us Know!

Communique is a newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, & information. Please submit information in writing to Public Relations, Roemer 105.

Quote of the Week...

"If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them."

Henry David Thoreau

Happy St. Patrick's Day!
