Today's Headlines

Diversity Dialogue: Free Speech

The DEI Task Force and Office of Student Life & Leadership are sponsoring a new series called "Diversity Dialogues". The first event will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 10 from 3:30 – 4:30 p.m. in Dunseth Auditorium, Harmon Hall.

The topic will be Free Speech and will be an open forum. The event will be moderated by Dr. Pernell Witherspoon (pictured), Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, and will include the following panelists: Kelly Moyich, Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Don Heidenreich, Professor of History, and Dr. Andrew Smith, Assistant Professor of Communications. All students, faculty, and staff are invited.

Weekend Sporting Events

The Lindenwood football team picked up one of its biggest wins since 2012 last weekend when it went to Pittsburg State and earned a 45-11 victory. The Lions look to take that momentum into Saturday's Hall of Fame game against Fort Hays State. The Tigers are currently ranked No. 14 in NCAA Division II, and are one of two undefeated teams in the MIAA. Kickoff for the contest is at 1 p.m. at Hunter Stadium.

The women's hockey team has its home opener on Friday night at 6 p.m. The Lady Lions will take on Minnesota State in a non-conference contest. The two teams will conclude their series on Saturday with a 6:30 p.m. game.

Business Ethics Panel Oct. 5

There will be a business ethics panel beginning at 11:30 a.m. on Oct. 5 at Dunseth Auditorium in Harmon Hall.

Local community leaders, faculty, staff, and students will have an opportunity to attend an informative, engaging panel discussion highlighting real-life ethical dilemmas experienced by local business professionals. Q&A portion of the event will focus on feedback from panelists, including their firsthand, personal approach to resolution. Panel discussion moderated by John Clark, President and CEO of Masterclock. CapIt@Lindenwood Podcast Available

CapIt@Lindenwood, is a new podcast accessible in iTunes. The Lindenwood doctoral faculty hope to offer an alternative platform of communication for the Lindenwood University doctoral student, on their journey to earning an Ed.D. degree. Our purpose is to provide increased transparency for "all things dissertation" – as the student strives to "CapIt@Lindenwood"! Listen to hosts, Drs. Leavitt and Elder discuss with their most recent guests, Mr. Leary, Director of LU IRB and Dr. Randolph, the research process. Visit the Educational Leadership page online.

Assessment Tip of the Week: "Lindenwood Retention and Graduation Goals"

You may recall that back in February of 2016, at the President's Retention Retreat, Lindenwood established system retention and graduation goals. The specific goals established were as follows: Read more

HLC Fact of the Day: "HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponent 3B5" (with specific focus on "Student-Faculty Scholarship")

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponent 3B5 says:

The faculty and students contribute to scholarship, creative work, and the discovery of knowledge to the extent appropriate to their programs and the institution's mission.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 3B5 standard, this is what we say regarding "Student-Faculty Scholarship": Read more

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
