NCAA Weekend Sports Action

The Lindenwood women's volleyball team will host two MIAA games this weekend. On Friday at 7 p.m., the Lady Lions will take on Missouri Southern. The next day, Lindenwood hosts Southwest Baptist at 2 p.m. Lindenwood has won two straight conference matches, including an upset win over Washburn last Saturday. Missouri Southern is tied with the Lady Lions in the conference standings, while Southwest Baptist is just 1-4 in MIAA action.

The women's soccer team will face Northeastern State on Saturday night at 7 p.m., and it will then host Central Oklahoma on Sunday at 2 p.m. Northeastern State is a perfect 9-0-0 on the season, while Central Oklahoma is 5-4-1 overall. The Lady Lions are coming off an exciting win on Sunday when they scored the game-winner against Nebraska-Kearney less than a minute into the overtime period.

The men's soccer team has a crucial game on Sunday against Fort Hays State at 11 a.m. Lindenwood won last year's MIAA regular season championship, while Fort Hays State won the NCAA regional title. Both teams are looking for a win to improve their chances to win this year's conference title and have a leg up in making the NCAA Tournament field.

HLC Fact of the Day: "HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponent 3C2" (with specific focus on "Faculty Qualifications")

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponent 3C2 says:

All instructors are appropriately qualified, including those in dual credit, contractual, and consortial programs.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 3C2 standard, this is what we say regarding "Faculty Qualifications": Read more

Assessment Tip of the Week: "Growth of Staffing in Assessment/IR Area"

In our HLC Assurance Argument, we discuss the improvements we have made in staffing the assessment/institutional research area (a concern cited by the 2013 HLC team). Here is what we say in Criterion 4: Read more

Assessment Champion Awards Given

The inaugural Assessment Champion Awards were given on Wednesday, Oct. 4. Fall '17 Career & Internship Fair Draws a Large Crowd

On the afternoon of Thursday, Sept. 28, Lindenwood students and alumni came out in force to participate in the Fall '17 Career and Internship Fair. Armed with resumes and dressed in their best professional attire, candidates stepped onto the floor of the Evans Commons Gym and were greeted by representatives from some of the areas' top corporations including Abstrakt Marketing, Brown Smith Wallace, Monsanto, Enterprise Holdings, Microsoft, the FBI, Edward Jones, Mueller Prost, and many more.

For some students, walking into a career fair can be a bit of a daunting experience. However, when they shake hands with a recruiter who introduces him or herself as a Lindenwood alumnus, the interaction becomes much easier. Approximately 20 percent of the company representatives that participated in the Fall '17 Career & Internship Fair were Lindenwood alumni who landed their first jobs as a result of attending a Lindenwood Career Fair.

"The future looks very bright for this group of Lindenwood candidates," said Dana Wehri, director of Career Services at Lindenwood University, "and Career Services team members are already hard at work making plans to ensure the Spring '18 Career Fair will be an event that is truly 'like no other.'"

Cote Paper Accepted by Two Journals

"Vision of Effective Leadership" by Dr. Bob Cote, program director of management in the School of Accelerated Degree Programs, has been accepted by the Journal of Leadership, Accountability and Ethics, and the International Journal of Business Administration.

The purpose of the paper will be to develop a framework for the objective evaluation of leadership styles, including effective and dark side leadership. In the framework, various leadership approaches are identified, such as (1) Transformational Leadership, (2) Transactional Leadership, (3) Charismatic Leadership, (4) Situational Leadership, (5) Pseudo-Transformational Leadership. Using this framework, two historical leaders will be compared and contrasted according to their leadership style. In the final section, dark side leadership dimensions will be reviewed and evaluated. Based on the framework, a vision of leadership strategy plan will be completed for incorporating effective leadership, including recognizing darker characteristics and providing solutions to avoid the emergence of dark leadership.

Walton Publishes on US Foreign Policy

Dale Walton, associate professor of international relations in the School of Humanities on Lindenwood University's St. Charles campus, recently published a think-piece on US foreign policy. The essay was published online by Modern Diplomacy, "a leading European opinion-maker." Walton argues that "Washington unwittingly has been crafting a bipartisan, slow-motion global policy disaster for years, and the results of its policy failures simply are becoming too difficult to ignore." Walton is the current Lindenwood University Scholar of the Year, and this is another example of the quality and relevance of his scholarship. Read the full article here.

Parking on Watson Street to be Restricted at Start of Semester

Due to a water project by the City of St. Charles northeast of the St. Charles campus, parking on Watson Street will remain restricted at the start of the semester until that portion of the project is completed. All students and employees are encouraged to give themselves extra time in the morning to find available parking. Nearby lots include the Roemer Hall and Harmon Hall lots and the parking lot of the Presbyterian Church at Sibley and Gamble Streets.

Updates will be posted when they become available.
