Men's Water Polo Championships This Weekend

The Lindenwood Men's Water Polo team is the defending National Champions and is rated #1 in the country by the Collegiate Water Polo Association! Lindenwood will host the Missouri Valley Division Championships this weekend at the St. Peters RecPlex. This is our only home tournament this season. We are playing for our sixth consecutive Division title and the winner qualifies for the Collegiate Water Polo Association National Championships at Florida State University Nov. 10-12.

Lindenwood is the only team in history to win three consecutive National Championships, in 2014, 2015, and 2016.

Assessment Tip of the Week: "Reminder: Updated Assessment Plans Are Due October 16"

All assessment reporting units (academic, co-curricular, administrative) should submit updated assessment plans by October 16, 2017.* Plans should be posted in Canvas just as the reports were submitted this past June. If you have any questions about that process, please contact Toni Josato at ajosato@lindenwood.edu. Read more

Attention Student Advisors:

As many heard at the last faculty meeting, Lindenwood has launched a high-impact Learning Community initiative for first-year students. Studies show that this innovative approach helps students connect more deeply with the content material and with each other.

Two theme-linked LCs are planned for Spring 2018:

Foodways; explore the sociocultural history of food and its biological relationship to the human body. Courses: BSC 11400, ENGL 17000, HIST 21800, & GEO 10100

Politics and Persuasion: explore how the language used in politics is shaped by culture and religion. Courses: ENGL 17000, HIST 16200, & REL 26100.

Faculty Bible Study

Faculty Bible Study meets in the Evans Side Dining Room every Tuesday, from noon - 1:15 p.m. This study is led by our InterVarsity Christian Fellowship Faculty and Grad Minister, George Stulac, and consists of a manuscript study on large chunks of text with reading, observation, questions, and discussion. We also pray for one another and for the university. All are welcome!

Homecoming is Tomorrow

Homecoming and Reunion 2017 for the St. Charles campus is here! Make sure you check the schedule for all of the great activities we have planned for this week! Don't forget, the Alumni Reception is today from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Grove area of the Library and Academic Resources Center. Join your fellow alumni, the professors emeriti, faculty, staff, and all of Lindenwood's friends for a great way to end the day.

Faculty and staff who are alumni are also welcome to attend the Alumni Association General Meeting this Saturday at 9 a.m., in the gathering space on the third floor of the LARC. Participate in the election of new Alumni Association Board members and meet the class agents from the class of 1967.

Check out the complete schedule of Homecoming events at www.lindenwood.edu/homecoming
