

LINDENWOOD
COLLEGE

COMMUNIQUE

April 17, 1995
Volume 12, No. 7

☛ What's Happening...

- Dance Alive II
April 20-22, 27-29
8:00 p.m., Jelkyl Theatre
World premiere of special music by local artisan Paul Stuart, with original choreography by Alice Bloch
- Spring Choral Concert
May 1, 7:30 p.m.
St. Charles Presbyterian Church
- Open House/Registration Day
May 5, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Admissions Office (Teahole)
- Art Exhibit:
Lindenwood Student Juried Art Show
through April 28
Hendren Gallery, Harmon Hall

New Employees

A hearty welcome to Laura Beineke ('92) and Mariann Townsend in the registrar's office, Jamie Gold-Naylor, admissions & financial aid counselor in undergraduate admissions, Julie Schmidt, admissions & financial aid counselor in graduate & adult professional admissions (Julie was formerly a grad assistant there), and Raul Rufino in maintenance.

Stein-way

Last month, Michael Stein, assistant professor of sociology, presented a paper (co-authored with Professor Richard Wright of UMSL) on "Seeing Ourselves: Exploring the Social Construction of Criminological Knowledge in a Qualitative Methods Course" at the annual meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences in Boston last month.

Modern Language Papers...

Anthony Perrone, associate professor of modern languages, presented a paper on the Spanish poet and Nobel Prize winner, Juan Ramon Jimenez at the Midlands Modern Language Conference in Omaha a few weeks ago. He also attended sessions on Hispanic literature and methods of teaching Spanish. George Craddock, assistant professor of modern languages, also presented a paper at the conference and attended workshops on 20th-Century Spanish literature, modern French theatre and cinema, and use of video technology for the classroom.

Retirement Reception

Don't forget to stop by the reception for Jeanne Donovan, professor of education, on Thursday, April 20 at the President's House, from 3:30-5:30 p.m. Jeanne is wrapping up 17 years at LC, and will be conferred professor emerita status during Commencement ceremonies. If you haven't already done so, R.S.V.P. to Judy Shanahan at ext. 4900 ASAP.

Tube Talk

Tune in tonight (Monday, April 17) to Channel 5 for the annual KSDK Volunteer 5 Awards Show. Lindenwood College is featured as one of the co-sponsors, and LC alumna Anne Pals ('65) is one of the award winners for her good works with the Humane Society and many other charitable organizations. The show starts at 7:00 p.m.

International Festival

The Lindenwood College Honors Program and the Intercultural Society invite you to an International Festival Friday evening, April 28 at the St. Charles Presbyterian Church. Students, faculty and staff are preparing delicious foods from around the world for the International Food Tasting from 6-7 p.m. Afterwards, enjoy a variety of music, costumes and presentations at the International Cultural Performances from 7-9:30 p.m. Both events cost $3.00, and the Cultural Performances segment only costs $1.00. Tickets for the Food Tasting must be purchased by Friday, April 21. For more information, or to purchase tickets, contact Rao Ayyagari at ext. 4714, Bob Zenker at ext. 4153, Summer Sell at 4494, Carla Armstrong at 4436, or Jeanne Murabito at 4921.

Psychology Papers Presented

Two senior psychology majors received honors at the SIUE Psi Chi Annual Graduate and Undergraduate Paper Reading Session in March. Nora Peterson took first place and Joan Di Pretore won third for their outstanding research papers. The SIUE Paper Reading Session is an annual event open to all local colleges and universities. The papers were judged by SIUE professors, graduate and undergraduate students. In addition, both Nora and Joan presented their papers at the Southeastern Psychological Association (SEPA) Convention in Savannah, Ga., last month. Destiny Gilpin ('94) and admissions/financial aid counselor, presented a paper with Mary Utley-Shook, on "The Communication Styles of Attorneys and The Effect on the Guilt or Innocence of Their Client," at the SEPA national convention.

Periodical Roundup

The library staff is looking for some missing copies of certain periodicals, so the issues can be bound. If you happen to have any of these copies and would like to donate them to the library, contact Jan Czaplá, head librarian, at ext. 4818. Here is a list of the issues needed:

American History Illustrated

Vol. 26 #2, May-June 1991

Vol. 27 #1, March-April 1992

American Journal of Public Health

Vol. 78 #4-5, April & May 1988

Vol. 88 #4, 7, 10, April, July & Oct 1993

American Scholar

Vol. 60 #2, Spring 1991

Current History

Vol. 91 #563 & 567, March & Oct. 1992

Financial World

Vol. 162 #16 & 21, 1993

Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis

Vol. 25 #1, Spring 1992

Journal of Reading

Vol. 36 #7, April 1993

National Geographic

Vol. 183 #1-4, Jan.-April 1993

Vol. 184, #2-5, Aug.-Nov. 1993

Personal Psychology

Vol. 43 #3, Fall 1990

Sloan Management

Vol. 33 #4, Summer 1992

Survey of Current Business

Vol. 73 #10, Oct. 1993

Interviewing Skills

In late February, Jim Maxwell presented a colloquium on "Power Interviewing" for LCIE undergraduate and graduate students. Jim reports the turnout was excellent and gave students a great opportunity to network.

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 13th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Opinions vs. News?

The February issue of the St. Louis Journalism Review included an article by Donna Card Charron, assistant professor of philosophy. In the article, Donna, an opinion-research veteran, discusses the Flash Poll, a research instrument used by KMOV-TV, Channel 4 to conduct "instant research" on viewer opinions.

Great Teachers Seminar

You are invited to attend the 5th Annual Missouri Great Teachers Seminar on July 9-14 at the Sunnen Lodge in Potosi. The seminar is sponsored by the Missouri Community College Association Faculty Department to provide a quality staff development opportunity for Midwestern college faculty. The focus is on the art of teaching and on the special nature of those who are and will be great teachers. For more information, contact Jim Slater at Crowder College (417) 451-4700, ext. 304, or James S. Kellerman at the Missouri Community College Assn. at (314) 634-8787.

Teleconference Scheduled

You are also invited to attend a teleconference on Strategies for Reducing Gender Bias in Mathematics Classrooms on April 19. The conference is sponsored by St. Louis Community College and The Women's Program Council of the Higher Education Center of St. Louis. In this teleconference, a moderator will detail the scope of the gender bias and its consequences. Instructors from middle school through college will share their strategies for reducing gender bias. Questions will be taken via fax and telephone. There are eight conference sites. For more information, contact Mary Utley-Shook, assistant professor of psychology, at ext. 4707.

Spring Sale

Watch for notices on a spring plant sale at the LC Greenhouse behind Young Hall. Excess plants will be available for purchase for your spring garden. The sale will probably take place in early May. Funds raised will help purchase supplies for the greenhouse.

Quote of the Month...

"In all education the main cause of failure is staleness."

--Alfred North Whitehead