Reminder for all Employees

Lindenwood College will be open from 8:30 a.m. until the campus is cleared from Commencement on Saturday, May 20. All offices are to remain open and fully staffed during this time. There will be no compensatory time granted. The administration appreciates the time given for this special once-a-year event.

All faculty and staff are requested to park on the lower lot by Harmon Hall on Commencement Day. A shuttle service will be provided to and from this lot. Parking in faculty and staff lots, particularly adjacent to Roemer, is reserved for graduates, their families, and guests attending Commencement.

Castro's Contributions

In April, Michael Castro, LCIE professor of literature and humanities, gave a poetry reading and talk at the Central Reform Congregation in St. Louis' Central West End. Castro's subject was "Two Sides of Sephardic Jewish Character," and focused on the 13th century mystic, Abraham Abulafia, and the 20th century American newspaper editor and community leader, Moise Gadol. Castro also gave a talk for the Lindenwood Philosophy and Theology Club on "The Hindu Concept of Self."

Publishing Notes

An article by LCIE adjunct humanities faculty member John Samuel Tieman will be published in the U.S. Catholic Historian, a scholarly magazine out of Baltimore. The working title of the article is: "The Origins of Twelve Step Spirituality: Bill W. and Edward Dowling, S.J." The article reviews the friendship and correspondence of Bill W., the co-founder of Alcoholics Anonymous, and Fr. Ed Dowling of the Jesuit Community in St. Louis. This friendship led to an exchange of ideas concerning Ignatian Spirituality and Twelve Step Spirituality, and eventually the first application of the Twelve Steps to problems other than alcoholism.

Dehner Discussions

Tom Dehner, adjunct communications faculty member in LCIE, is a regular columnist in the Alton Telegraph Sunday paper.

Board Position

Marilyn Patterson, assistant professor of professional and school counseling, was recently elected to serve a two-year term of office as trustee on the Missouri Counseling Association Executive Board.

Ethics in the Workplace

Education professors John Dougherty, Janet Fever, Joe Bordeaux, and Roger Deppe, along with counseling professor Pam Nickels and graduate assistant Robyn Greene, recently spent a day assisting the St. Peters Chamber of Commerce with a workshop on ethics in the workplace for selected high school students.

Dougherty's Doin's

An article by John Dougherty, assistant education professor, entitled "The Grasp of Safety," was published in the May 1995 issue of The Transescent, the journal of the Missouri Middle School Association.

Dougherty's book review of "Watershed: A Successful Voyage into Integrative Learning" was published in the May 1995 issue of Schools In The Middle, the NASSP journal for middle level educators.
