New Employees

Aloha to the newest members of the Lindenwood family: Charlsie Floyd, development officer; Rich McGee, electrician; Shane Bowyer, head baseball coach and sports information director; Bill Goodwin, men's basketball coach; and Tim Nihart, housing and student activities director.

In Memoriam

A memorial service will be held for Jessie Bolton, Lindenwood College maintenance man, at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 20 in Sibley Chapel. Jessie died Saturday, June 17 from a heart attack. He has worked at LC for the past few years.

Kozman Featured

Myron Kozman, adjunct faculty member in LCIE, was featured in the June 2nd edition of the Webster-Kirkwood Times. The article centered on Kozman's training at the "New Bauhaus School" in Chicago, and its influence on his approach to his art, architecture, photography and graphic design. He teaches visual communications and art classes at LC, and encourages students to see art in their everyday lives.

Carebank 5

KSDK-TV Channel 5 is holding its annual "Carebank 5" drive at area mall parking lots this Saturday, June 24. Volunteers from Lindenwood College and St. Joseph's Health Center and Hospital West are collecting non-perishable food and disposable diapers for St. Louis Area Food Bank, which will distribute the goods to some 300 food pantries. Collection hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. If you have an hour or two to give, stop by or call Susie Pundmann at 949-4976 to sign up. Thanks!

Wilson Heads National Organization

Jim Wilson, dean of humanities, has been selected chair of the National Advisory Council for the National Broadcasting Society. Jim has served on the council for two years, and as chairman, will be a primary liaison between the National Broadcasting Society and the broadcast industry.

Tieman Activities

Adjunct professor in LCIE John Samuel Tieman recently coordinated a literary conference, the 2nd Annual Thomas Merton Commemoration, which featured key-note speaker Daniel Berrigan, and a day of tribute to Harry James Cargas. About 300 people participated in the two-day conference. And, a performance-poem composed by Tieman, "Lament in D Minor," is to be presented as part of a music festival, Fortissimo, in Rochester, N.Y., this month. The work will be performed by a string ensemble composed of members of the Rochester Philharmonic and faculty members of the Eastman School of Music.

Student Achievements

342 undergraduate students were named to the Dean's List for the 1995 spring semester. These full-time students earned a 3.5 GPA or higher. 140 student-athletes were named to the Spring 1995 Athletic Academic Honor Roll. They earned a 3.0 GPA or higher and participated in at least one intercollegiate sport. Both lists are posted outside the Registrar's Office.

Quote of the Month...

"A professional is someone who can do his best work when he doesn't feel like it."

--Alistair Cooke
