New Employees

Welcome to the following newest members of the Lindenwood Community: Shonda Jackson ('92), staff accountant; Sheila Logan and Dindra McFadden, student life counselors; Chester Andrews, admissions/financial aid counselor in graduate and adult professional admissions; Peggy Brock and Darlene Horst, housekeeping; Michael Kelley, carpenter; Charlene Engleking, director of campus life, and Gamal Castile, data coordinator in the registrar's office. We also have two new part-timers: Dena Knoblauch is the new cheerleading coach, and Tracy Handal is the new assistant women's soccer coach.

Dean Deppe

Congratulations to Roger Deppe, who is the new dean of the education division. Deppe has been associate dean for the past two years. Congratulations!

PR Grows

Laura Beinecke ('92) has moved from the registrar's office to the public relations office, where she is now associate director of public relations.

Taich Workshop

Arlene Taich, provost, recently presented a workshop for women on "How To Get A Job", during the St. Charles Housing Authority Family Self-Sufficiency Project's keynote banquet.

Evans Publishes Textbook

"Straightforward Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences" is the name of a new textbook authored by Jim Evans, dean of the sciences. Brooks/Cole Publishing Company is publishing the 634-page book.

Don't Forget!

All Lindenwood employees should pick up a parking decal and register their cars before classes begin August 29. The static cling decals cost $2.00.

Colburn & Calculus

Judith Colburn, assistant professor of mathematics, took part in the Chautauqua Short Course: Calculus for a New Century earlier this summer at the University of Dayton. The Chautauqua Short Course program provides the opportunity for the communication of new knowledge, new advances, and new techniques directly to college teachers.

Theatre Education

Marsha Parker, dean of fine and performing arts, and Bryan Reeder, assistant professor of theatre, have each been invited to present a workshop for the Missouri State Thespian Board Members and Educational Theatre Association's 1995 State Conference. The two-day seminar will be held at Lincoln University in December. More than 750 high school students from around the state are expected to attend.

Education Conference

Linda Estes, associate professor of education and John Dougherty, assistant professor of education, presented "Rambling Rivers" at the Rockwood/Lindenwood Teaching/Learning Conference yesterday.

Dougherty Doin's

John Dougherty also participated in the St. Louis Community College Student Focus Group Research Study this summer, and is continuing as a manuscript/book reviewer for the National Middle School Association, Phi Delta Kappa, National Association of Secondary School Principals, Kappa Delta Pi, and the Association of Curriculum and Supervision.

Music at the Sheldon

The Lindenwood College music department has been invited to display its many talents at the Sheldon Concert Hall in St. Louis on Tuesday, October 17. Students and faculty vocal and instrumental performances will be featured. Mark the date on your calendar...more details to come!

Wanita's Works

Wanita Zumbrunnen, associate professor in LCIE, attended an international faculty seminary at the State Ministry of Science and Education and St. Petersburg Gornyi Institute at St. Petersburg and Moscow during June.

Wanita also received Honorable Mentions for poetry submitted to the Wednesday Club Annual Poetry Contest and the Missouri Writer's Week Award for Poetry.

For those of you who have been with us all summer, thanks for all your hard work.

For those of you who are new or returning, welcome back!

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 13th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Quote of the Month...

"Those who agree with us may not be right,
but we admire their astuteness."

--Cullen Hightower
