

☛ What's Happening...

- "Everyman" and Music of the Middle Ages
September 21, 22, 23, 7:30 p.m.
Sibley Chapel
- Rich Brooks Exhibit
through September 22
Hendren Gallery
- Grant Hargate Exhibit
September 28-October 28
Hendren Gallery
Reception: September 28, 6-8 p.m.
- LCIE Opening Weekend
Saturday, September 30
- Evening/MBA Fall Quarter Classes Begin
Monday, October 2
- Next Home Men's Soccer Game
September 23
vs. Benedictine College
7:00 p.m., Hunter Stadium
- Next Home Football Game (Homecoming)
Saturday, October 14
Lions vs. Taylor University
1:30 p.m., Hunter Stadium
- Next Home Women's Soccer Game
September 19
Lady Lions vs. Harris Stowe
4:00 p.m., Hunter Stadium
- Next Home Volleyball Game
September 19
Lady Lions vs. Hannibal LaGrange
7:00 p.m., Lindenwood Sports Complex

New Employees

Welcome to the following newest member of the Lindenwood Community: Adam Ulrich, data coordinator in the registrar's office; John Atchison, Joseph Harris and Roy Johnson, maintenance; Joanne Lukitsch, housekeeping. Welcome Aboard!

Dean Babbitt

Congratulations to Don Babbitt, who is the new dean of the management division. Babbitt has been with LC since 1990. Congratulations!

Way to Go, Jim!

Congratulations to Jim Maxwell, assistant professor of management. Jim is a recipient of the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation, Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership Inc., Ph.D. Dissertation Fellowship for the 1995-96 academic year.. He is one of ten fellowship recipients.

Music at the Sheldon

The Lindenwood College music department has been invited to display its many talents at the Sheldon Concert Hall in St. Louis on Tuesday, October 17. Students and faculty vocal and instrumental performances will be featured. For information on tickets, contact Marsha Parker, dean of fine and performing arts at ext. 4906.

Food Service Professional

Director of Food Service Ralph Pfremmer of Ameriserve, Inc., has been certified as a Food Service Management Professional (FMP) by the Educational Foundation of the National Restaurant Association. The FMP designation is a professional certification that recognizes individuals who demonstrate an exceptional level of experience, knowledge, and leadership within the food service industry. Congratulations, Ralph!

Honor Society Honored

Tau Phi Chapter, Lindenwood's chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the international honor society in education, was featured in the September issue of the society's newsletter. The chapter's teacher's fair booth was pictured.

PR Patterson

Marilyn Patterson, associate professor and coordinator of the gerontology program, has been appointed chair of the Public Relations Committee for the Association of Adult Development and Aging, a division of the American Counseling Association.

Paper Published

Rao Ayyagari, professor of biology, co-authored a paper entitled A Mutational Analysis of Yeast Proliferating Cell Nuclear Antigen Indicates Distinct Roles in DNA Replication and DNA Repair. The article appeared in the August issue of "Molecular and Cellular Biology".

Sunday Series

Lindenwood College's fine and performing arts division has been invited to establish a Sunday Series at the St. Peters City Hall. Various groups from the College will perform throughout the year in the multipurpose room of City Hall.

Sunday, October 22 LC Guitar Ensemble

Sunday, November 19 Dance Performances

Sunday, March 17 Vocal Concert

Sunday, April 14 Saxophone & Voice Concert

All concerts begin at 4:00 p.m.

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 13th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Cruise the Information Superhighway

Through the Missouri State Library and the Missouri Library Network Corp., libraries in the metropolitan St. Louis area will participate in a two-month, no-charge trial of OCLC's FirstSearch service during September and October.

FirstSearch is an online reference system that links you to 55 popular databases providing information on business, science, the humanities, psychology, education, and popular culture. You don't need computer or online search experience to gain access to this comprehensive offering of databases. You can conduct in-depth subject searching, compile comprehensive bibliographies, locate hard-to-find materials, and display, print, and e-mail records back to you electronic address.

Try FirstSearch following these steps:

1. Using your login and password, connect to Lindenwood's lynx home page.
2. Select World Wide Web access page (enter)
3. Page down to page 2 and select OCLC FirstSearch (enter)
4. Authorization number, type 100-118-752 (enter)
5. Password, type butler (enter)

FirstSearch Quick Reference Guides are available in Butler Library. To obtain a login and password, contact Jeff Prince in computer services at 949-4721.

Quote of the Month...

"The more flexible you are, the less chance you have of being bent out of shape."