News & Notes ...

New Faces

Welcome to the newest members of the Lindenwood community: Carol Dawn Arrendale, director of work and learn; Greg Elsenrath, coordinator of student financial aid services; Jennifer Everding, counselor in undergraduate admissions; Pam Hansen, housekeeping; Adam Ulrich, data analyst in the Registrar's Office; and Aaron Vlecko, financial aid coach and assistant football coach.

Cernik Chapter

Joe Cernik, professor of political science and international business, has just published a chapter in the book Florida Decades: 1845-1995. Joe's chapter is entitled "John (Buck) O'Neil: Black Baseball in Florida", and is about the former athlete who now runs the Negro League Baseball Museum in Kansas City. The book is being published by the Florida Historical Society in commemoration of 150 years of statehood.

Taich Appointment

Arlene Taich, provost, was recently appointed to the seven member Finance and Administration Advisory Committee for the City of Chesterfield. Taich was hand-picked by Chesterfield Mayor Jack Leonard. She will serve a three year term.

Baby, Baby

A hearty congratulations to Ed Fleming, athletic trainer and assistant professor of education, and wife Kathy on the birth of Julie Christine. The eight-pound, 15 ounce baby girl arrived December 26, Congratulations also to Edie Barnard, assistant professor of communications, and husband Dan on the birth of Sara Ainsworth. She weighed in at nine pounds, four ounces, and arrived January 11.

Sunday Series

Lindenwood College's fine and performing arts division has been invited to establish a Sunday Series at the St. Peters City Hall. Various groups from the College will perform throughout the year in the multipurpose room of City Hall.

Sunday, March 17 Vocal Concert

Sunday, April 14 Saxophone & Voice Concert

All concerts begin at 4:00 p.m.

Musical Moments

The Bach Society Chamber Chorus will perform in historic Sibley Chapel on the Lindenwood College campus Saturday, February 10 at 7:30 p.m.

The 30 member chorus, based in St. Louis, is performing in Sibley Chapel as part of its annual tour. This is the first time the chorus has performed in St. Charles County in over a decade. The performance includes a musical interlude on the Wicks organ by Bach Society Artistic Director John Walsh.

Tickets for the performance are $10.00 per person. Seats are limited, so reservations are required. To reserve tickets, contact Marsha Parker at ext. 4906.

Shape Up Session

The entire Lindenwood community is invited to take part in a floor aerobics/weight training session at 6 pm tomorrow night in the Fitness Center. For more information, contact Shelia Logan, director of campus activities, at ext. 4993.

Recycling Paper

Now that classes are well into the swing of things, it's time to think about recycling your paper products. If you need a blue bin, contact Erin Brennan at ext. 4509 or Ann Canale at ext. 4871. The recycling dumpster is located behind Ayres, across from the driveway from its previous location.

Batter Up!

Yes, assistant professor of management Jim Maxwell is roaming the halls again. He is looking for softball players for the College's co-ed and men's softball teams. The spring co-ed games will be on Friday evenings; the spring men's games will be on Tuesday or Thursday evening. The season opener is scheduled for March. Please call Jim at extension 4907 if you're interested in taking the field.

Let Us Know!

Communique is a monthly newsletter for the faculty, staff and administration of Lindenwood College. We welcome any anecdotes, news, information and input. We would also like to receive a copy of your event flyers. Please submit information in writing by the 13th of each month to the Office of Public Relations, Roemer 105, ext. 4912/4913. Communique is distributed on the 15th of each month.

Quote of the Month...

"The more flexible you are, the less chance you have of being bent out of shape."
